National League for Democracy
No: (97/b) West Shwegondine Road
Bahan, Rangoon

Statement No: 70 (9/98)

1. Our information is that a pamphlet with the heading "Alert Sound" dated September 1998 is being produced and distributed by an unknown organisation with slogans to incite and cause disturbances and unrest.
2. Some of the slogans casting aspersions on the National League for Democracy are:
   (a) "Their activities are designed to bring about poverty, high prices, problems and starvation for the poor, the daily labourer and the civil servants."
   (b) "At a time when peace and tranquility have been achieved their activities have reached intolerable limits".
   (c) "The activities of the National League for Democracy is for the purpose of causing unrest and disturbances in the country."

3. Our information is that the pamphlet "Alert Sound" is printed at a printing press in Wingaba Road, Bahan Township, Rangoon.

Central Executive Committee
National League for Democracy

Rangoon  