Statement 94 (6/00) (translation)

1. We have received information that in the Rangoon Division, Syrium township, U Kyin Aye, U Hoke Shwe (members of the administrative authority), UAung Kyaw Myo (UBSDO member), Daw Myint Myint (Parent and Child Care) and others have been going to every house intimidating and deceiving people to put their signatures to prepared forms brought with them.
2. At the homes of NLD members they visit, a big lie is told. They allege that the signatures are required for a petition on behalf of Dr. Win Naing (currently under arrest) NLD MP elect from Constituency No 1, Syrium township. At other houses, they apply pressure and force the people to sign threatening them with arrest and imprisonment.
3. The prepared forms which people are forced to sign contain words indicating loss of confidence in Dr. Win Naing, the legally elected Member of Parliament, we have been informed.
4. All this reveal how the rule of law is violated by the authorities and organisations under their control and how the people are held in their grip and made to do anything required of them. We censure and condemn all these movements and activities.
