

NLD Statement 113/2000:

National League for Democracy
No: (97/B), West Shwegonedine Road
Bahan Township, Rangoon

Statement 113 (7/00) (translation)

1. Calendars for the year 2000 with the picture of the General Secretary of the National League for Democracy, Daw Aung San Suu Kyi and calendars with the picture of our national leader General Aung San and his daughter democracy leader Daw Aung San Suu Kyi were printed and distributed to all members of the NLD.

2. People of different ethnic groups and members of the NLD who love and respect General Aung San and his daughter Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, the Noble Peace Prize recipient, hang these calendars in their homes, offices, workplaces and elsewhere.

3. Local authorities under the military dictators are interfering in the private right of individuals and are illegally objecting, molesting and taking action against those who possess and display these calendars.

4. These year 2000 calendars were produced by the National League for Democracy, a legally constituted political organisation. Distribution commenced on the 4 January 2000 as a record of Burma's Independence Day. The NLD takes full responsibility and makes this announcement accordingly.
