Foreword

This special dossier of 36 cases brought under the 1908 Unlawful Associations Act against people accused of contact with the Kachin Independence Army was researched and compiled in 2012 by independent human rights defenders in Burma who have requested that the Asian Human Rights Commission disseminate the material. We do so willingly, and with firm appreciation for the work that these human rights defenders have undertaken in gathering the material, and preparing it in both English and Burmese. Out of respect for them and their effort, we have made only minor changes to the original text as prepared by them. We hope that readers will find that any peculiarities in usage will be more than made up for by the authenticity of the voices that come out in these accounts; an authenticity that we have decided deliberately not to editorialise through revisions and reorganisation of the contents as we received them.

At a time that the conflict in Kachin State between the Kachin Independence Army and Burma armed forces is only getting worse, this dossier marks an important contribution to documentation on human rights abuses in the region, because it signals very sharply the intersection between war and law, between violence in armed combat and violence in interrogation, in the use of torture and other techniques against persons who have been branded enemies of the state. Indeed, this aspect of such events, be they in Burma or in other parts of Asia, is often overlooked, and therefore is one deserving some comment in the preliminary remarks to this dossier.

The use of coercive law for the purposes of identification and elimination of enemies is a peculiar type of legal practice and one that is not at all consistent with the practice of criminal law ordinarily. In the usual state of affairs, an individual is arrested and prosecuted for an alleged criminal act in which he, or perhaps he and some others, jointly participated. The orientation of the law is throughout situated after the fact of the offence. The accused have no prior status, no particular identity before the offence is committed. Their arrest follows the act of purported criminality.

The situation is not at all the same when we consider cases brought under instruments like the 1908 Unlawful Associations Act, which we have appended to the foreword of this dossier. Although the act purports to respond to alleged violations of law, alleged criminal acts, in fact assumes a prior political relationship with the persons who are prosecuted under its auspices—one that is oriented not towards acts but towards identities. The problem that this act was from the beginning designed to deal with was not the problem of the criminal but the problem of the internal enemy. Its object is to criminalise the internal enemy: in other words, to establish a nexus between war and law through identification of a subset of the population.

When a piece of legislation has as its foremost purpose the identification and criminalisation of enemies, its primary concern is no longer with the individual, or the individual crime. The internal enemy is always the public enemy. And the public enemy is always a collective enemy. Therefore, the problem that such legislation is designed to address is one of groups of people, not individuals. And groups of people are necessarily identified prior to any alleged criminal acts that they do or do not commit. They are identified by virtue of, for instance, their affiliation (what the act purports to target specifically), their ethnicity, their language, their religion or otherwise.

Whatever the identifying criteria, once identified, the group itself constitutes a latent criminal body, irrespective of what its individual members do or do not do. In short, the legislating of internal enemies as in the case of the Unlawful Associations Act completely reverses the ordinary relationship between law and the individual, between the notion of an offence and the rights of citizens. It inverts the idea that criminality arises as a consequence of a crime, and inserts the notion of criminality into the identification of the collective, prior to any crime being committed.
Consequently, today in Burma, or Myanmar as it is known officially, Kachin people are detained, tortured, charged and extorted irrespective of what they have or have not done, because of their prior identification as members of an enemy group—which is to say, not the KIA, but the ethno-linguistic category with which it identifies. One reads in the cases that follow the same story over and over again, that of people picked up, brutalised and criminalised by virtue of their identities. War passes into law where the police or military intelligence interrogator takes on the role of torturer, while the state acts to suck the economic capacity out of the enemy population through the extraction of money for attendance at court cases, to meet detainees while held in custody and other services for which some payment is demanded.

In response to this situation, the human rights defenders who gathered and translated this material have two stated objectives: to document and inform people about the use of the Unlawful Associations Act; and, to secure the release of the accused. Both of these objectives are laudable, and strongly supported by the AHRC. Clearly, not enough has been done to document cases of this sort in a way that makes explicit the connection between strategic practices of the military and those of other parts of the state apparatus for the targeting of internal enemies. We firmly hope that by taking these steps, not only will the connections be better understood but also those whose cases are documented will obtain relief through some publicity and attention to their specific plights.

But beyond these cases, and the preliminaries of documentation, anyone who reads these cases cannot, we think, help be struck by the extent to which the illegal and brutal practices of the police and intelligence services are utterly habituated and systematised. And here we reach the point at which, once more understanding of the phenomena described herein is obtained, more thought is also required about what to do next.

Persons abroad and in Burma itself—including in its legislature—have called for the revocation of the Unlawful Associations Act. That call is worthy of everyone's support. It has the support of the AHRC. But the AHRC has also said for a long time that simple revocation of repressive laws will amount to very little in Burma if not accompanied by other deeper reforms. This law, like others currently used in the country to violate fundamental human rights, is merely a vehicle for the abusive practices that the police and military forces conduct habitually. If one law is revoked, another can be used. No shortage of laws exist with which to abuse rights, and it is a foolish and pointless game to think that chasing down repressive laws and eliminating them all will solve human rights problems—although it may ameliorate the most obvious egregious abuses, perhaps by pushing them under the surface.

Therefore, we ask readers of this dossier when considering the contents of the stories on the pages that follow to think past the question of how to revoke the Unlawful Associations Act, to the larger question of how to eliminate the sorts of practices that the act, like a variety of other laws in Burma, makes easy. And, we ask the reader to think about what is needed to break the nexus between law and war, and end the culture of the internal enemy in Burma, so that the criminal law is at last fundamentally a matter of the prosecution of the individual for the commission of a crime. Although these are big asks, and the answers to the questions are not easily visualised, we do need to think in these terms if we are to contemplate a future for Burma without the types of human rights violations contained in this dossier.

Summary of the documentation

The documents of the cases is composed of the victims accused of being KIA or having connections with KIA under the Unlawful Associations Act 1908. The report was able to publish with the collaboration with victims themselves, kin of victims, lawyers, local individuals and civil society organizations in Kachin State and Northern Shan State.

After the conflict between the government army and the Kachin Independence Army (KIA) flared up again in June 2011, many civilians are accused of being KIA or having connections with KIA, arrested and kept in the detention centers. Most civilians are innocent, but they were tortured severely because of suspect. Some are arrested from the Internally Displaced Person (IDP) camps, which instigated insecurity among the IDPs. The family of the detainees are struggling for their survival, most families are poor and they have to work hard to make ends meet. Though they know that their family members are innocent, they cannot afford for the trial cost and expense. Besides, some victims were not charged with the Unlawful Associations Acts 1908, but with other charges, and they were sentenced with harsh sentence.

The names of KIA soldiers are recorded in the list of KIA. Hopefully, when there will be potential success for the ceasefire agreement, the KIA will demand to release their soldiers who are detained. However, the names of the civilians charged with the wrong cause are neither in the list of KIA nor government. Surely, they would be taken as criminals.

Executive Objectives of the documentation

The first objective of the project is to document cases vis-à-vis the Unlawful Association Act 1908 and disseminate publicly in Burmese and English languages.

The second important objective of the project is to organize a movement to demand for the release of all the innocent detainees and prisoners. The documentation and reporting of the human rights violations of the victims both in the detention camps and courts is expected to restore their dignity and recognition of their innocence. If wrongfully detained and charged persons are released, the road to national reconciliation is hoped to be smooth.

Lahpai Gam and his family arrived at Shwezet IDP camp from Npawn Village on 14 June 2011. He was arrested together with Brang Yung, Zau Bawk, and La Ring by Kha La Ya (37). Convoy troops from Ta Law Gyi village on their way to China to sell cows for others to support their Children at school. At present, he is being prosecuted and judged at Myitkyina Township Court with 1908 Unlawful Association Act art. 17(1).

The Oral Statement of Lashi Lu Mai (Lahpai Gam’s wife)

We moved from Kawng Ra in Shan State to Npawn village in Kachin State in 2006. We came to Shwezet Church IDP camp on 24 June 2011. When we arrived there, my father did not smoke, or did not drink. He never went out at night and not even at daytime. But we needed to send money to Mogok to support our daughter Ja Hkawn at school there, and he left for Ta Law Gyi on 9 June 2012 to escort other’s people’s cows for sale. He was arrested along with others by (Burmese Regiment) Kha La Ya (37) troop while he was eating lunch with his friends on 12 June. The merchant lady and a Burmese couple were released upon payment of 1,200,000 kyats (1.2 million kyats). Four of them were taken away. Upon their arrival at Sa-Ya-Hpa (Military Intelligence) headquarters in Myitkyina, they were tortured and forced him to admit that he was the KIA officer who had exploded the bomb near Myitkyina. He later told me that he would have been murdered if he had not made the confession and he would not be home again. He also told me how he was hit with an iron bar, hit with the butt of gun, and confined to a cell. The wounds caused by their tortured were not treated with medicine. We could not afford any medicine other than Burmese herbal medicine. We had to provide the medical doctor’s prescriptions and documents. We also had to bribe the prison gatekeepers. They were blindfolded and brought to us when we went to meet them in prison. Four of them were interrogated at midnights. My father had never been a militia. He saw KIA soldiers only when we came here.

Because of this situation it seems that our daughter will have to drop out of school. He is our only breadwinner and now we are in great trouble. Now, we pay the lawyer with the money borrowed from the church. Our house in Npawm has already been burnt-down, and I feel like crazy. The fighting may continue for a long time and we are in the dark. I have to spend Ks. 20,000 every time I go and see him at prison. I have met him there seven times already. I paid him Ks. 50,000 because he said he needed to buy bed in prison. I also had to pay the prison warden so that my husband would not be assigned work there. Otherwise he would be forced to carry toilet buckets. He had to give a packet of coffee-mix to enter toilet. A lot of money has been spent.

2. Zahkung La Ring

Name of the accused (Suspect) : Zahkung La Ring
Father’s name : Zahkung Di
Date of Birth : 17 February 1985
NRC ID : (not remembered)
Gender : Male
Education : Grade 9
Occupation : Hillside paddy farmer
Marital status : Single Permanent address : Block (4), Talaw Gyi village
Current address : Shwezet IDP camp
Contact person : Nhkum Kaw
Date of arrest : 12 June 2012
Name of court : Myitkyina Township Court
Act of the case : 1908 Unlawful Associations Act, art. 17(1)
Verdict : (still on trial)
Date of interview : 17 August 2012

A Brief Account of Detention

Zahkung La Ring had been a clerk at KIA Information office but he was discharged because he vomitted blood. When the fighting broke out in Ta Law Gyi village, they moved to Shwezet IDP camp to flee from the war. Since he needed money, he went along with fellow refugees Lahpai Gam, Brang Yung and Zau Bawk who were at the same IDP camp, to drive cows to China market as hired workers for other people. He is the breadwinner of his family. They were arrested by Kha-La-Ya (37) army from Ta Law Gyi on their way. He is facing prosecution with Unlawful Association Act, art. 17(1) at Myitkyina Township Court.
The Oral Statement of Nhkim Kaw (La Ring’s mother)

Formerly, La Ring worked in a hillside farm. Sometimes, he went to Sin Bo. During cease-fire time, (1994 to 2011 June) he worked as a clerk at KIA Information Office. He quit that job. On their way driving cows, he and his friends came across with the army convoy and he was arrested on 12 June 2012. At the time of his arrest, he was not tortured or interrogated. The militia in Ta Law Gyi were the ones who sent them to jail. The torture started upon their arrival in Myitkyina for interrogation. He was confined to cell for two nights. They (military intelligence) hit him with iron bars and gun butts. He was blindfolded when he went to toilet. I have three children. He is my only son. I love him not wanting to be out of sight. I was unhappy when I saw him being tortured. I felt pity on him too. Every time I remembered this I wept. When he got sick we were not allowed to send English medicine. Only Burmese and Kachin traditional medicines (herbal) were allowed. The prescription of the doctor in charge was necessary for English medicine. I cannot afford the doctors prescription fees because it is more expensive than the medicine. Each trip to court appointment costs me Ks 25,000. Moreover, I have to pay bribe money so that they may not assign him chores. I had to buy a bed for him with Ks. 50,000. In prison, the inmate has to give the warden a packet of coffee mix every time he goes to toilet. My son is the only breadwinner for me. My daughters are married and they cannot support me like he does. Now that he is in jail, I have no one to take care of me. I am in real trouble.

Date of interview : 17 August 2012

A Brief Account of Detention

U Brang Yung and family left their home in Npawn village and came to IDP camp in Shwezet Baptist Church on 24 June 2011. Although they had enough food to eat in the IDP camp, they needed money for their children’s schooling and he left Shwezet Baptist Church IDP camp for China to drive other businessmen’s cows for sale on 9 June 2012. While they were tending cows in the grazing field, Kha La Ya (37) troop convoy arrested seven people of them including three cow owners. But the three cow owners were release upon the payment of 1.2 million kyats (Ks. 1,200,000). The other four of them were detained by Kha La Ya (37). At present, those four men are being prosecuted by 1908 Unlawful Associations Act, art. 17(1) at Myitkyina Township Court.

The Oral Statement of his wife Hkawn Nan

Our family moved to Npawn village in Kachin state from Kawng Ra village in Shan state in 2006. As we have been married for a few years, our children are still young. It is not true at all that my husband served in KIA. He is supporting the whole family by doing odd jobs and planting or transplanting in paddy fields. He was not assigned any duty because they saw him ends struggling making ends meet. He had never seen KIA until he went to Laiza. We arrived at Shwezet Baptist Church IDP Camp on 24 June 2011. We have a lot of hardships with our three children. The eldest one is in grade 7, the second one is in kindergarten, and the youngest one is still a nursing baby. I cannot go out and earn money because I am still breastfeeding the baby. I spent about Ks. 20,000 every time. I don’t have a single penny now. I am heavily indebted. I asked him why did you admit that you were a KIA soldier without serving in KIA. He said that he would have been murdered if he did not make such in confession. He told me that his hearing was impaired because they tortured him very badly. They hit his head with iron bars on his head. He was confined in a dark cell for two days. They lit torchlight when they brought food to his cell. He was blindfolded every time he visited toilet. Four of them were interrogated always at midnight. When they reached Sa Ya Hpa (Military Intelligence) they were tortured more terribly. Sa Ya Hpa tortured him but did not provide medical treatment after tortured. Since they did not provide him medicine we sent medicine to him. But English medicine was not allowed. Only Burmese and Kachin medicines were allowed. We paid Ks. 8,000 to the prison authorities to pass the English medicine to the inmate. They had to buy bed in jail. The slept on planks. One plank costs Ks. 50,000. Every time they go to toilet, they have to give a packet of coffee mix to the warden. Therefore, we are spending a lot of money on that. I am very upset and I am at my wits’ end.

The Oral Statement of Brang Yung’s Mother Daw Hpauyam Lu

Mmm…… I don’t want to say about how much I am suffering hardships. Brang Yung married young. He was not yet 17 at that time. So, he cannot do anything for us his parents. He earns money by doing daily odd jobs. He went to school up to grade 6 only. He has never been a KIA soldier. He never does any job enthusiastically. He was supporting his wife and child by doing odd jobs everyday. They always had financial strait. Now, his father is not feeling well. We cannot go and see him because we have no money. We need money to see him every week. His younger brother has gone to Hpakant jade mine. His younger sister is still in grade-3. My sufferings are beyond my expressions. We have learnt from the authorities why Brang Yung was arrested. Having been hired by cow traders to drive the courts to China. They came across an army convoy. The army asked for Ks. 100,000 for each cow. When they told the soldiers that he did not have that much money because they were hired workers to send the cows for sale. Then they arrested him, began to torture him. They accused him of hiding guns and took him to search for the weapons in the jungle. He has never known what ammunitions look like. After having been tortured by the army convoy in Ta Law Gyi for two weeks, he was sent to Sa Ya Hpa in Myitkyina. When they were detained in Ta Law Gyi they were not given food, and no one was allowed to bring food to them until 20 days after they were arrested, we did not know where to find them. Lawyer U Ma Hka told me to appeal for him. Those lawyers were at Sa Ya Hpa office. When I went there to meet that lawyer, he was told to leave. The lawyer said he had asked an army captain for inquire about my son. While I was sitting without knowing where to inquire, a neighbor of mine came and told me that my son was already in Myitkyina. I rushed to see my son in Sa Ya Hpa office but it was already dark in the evening and I could not meet him. The next morning I met my son in jail. The previous day during my absence, Sa Ya Hpa came and asked my relatives about Brang Yung (weeping). The next morning when I met my son in prison his head had open wound and one side was slant. His face was swollen and he could not here anymore when we talked to him. I raised my voice but he heard nothing. May be, he could not hear me because his head was broken on the left side. His head was hit by the gun when they tortured him. He did not say anything particular because he might not want our family members feel sad. My daughter in law raised her voice and told him that we tried to locate him but could not find him. He told us that we could find him because he was locked in a cell underground. At about 9:00 pm, Sa Ya Hpa got heavily drunk and tortured them. They said, “You are Kachin, now dance your Manau dance”. (Manau dance is a Kachin Traditional dance). He danced without clothes. They took off my son’s clothes and tortured him. He was not sure how many of them were there. When the night fell, Sa Ya Hpa used to get drunk and torture the suspects. They said, “You are KIA soldiers. You install mines” when my son replied “no” they tortured him more. That was the time while we were searching for him. He said that he was not provided 10 meals. He said that he was also electrocuted. His face was burned with hot iron plate. A relative of mine in jail told me that Brang Yung was extremely tortured. He told me to send plenty of medicine to him in prison. We sent a lot of Kachin herbal medicine to him. He is unable to wash his clothes in jail because of pain so he had to pay some one else to wash them. Now he said to hear a little better. His body was blue and black all over. He said that he had been beaten with iron bars. Recently, we went to the court appointment twice, and he told our lawyer that he could not eat. Every time we go to court appointment we have to borrow money. We have no one to earn money. Sometime ago, I worked on odd jobs for daily wages. Now, no one hired me. All the money is gone. I have hypertension because my son is in such a condition. I have Ks, 70,000 in debt now.

The Oral Statement of Nbwi Roi Grawng

His surname is Mading and mine is Labang. He is related to me as my nephew. His parents are dead. His two younger sisters were given away to other people. His older brother died as a soldier, I look after him as my old son because my own children are still young. He also cares for me as his own mother. We had lived in Jan Mai Kawng village before we came to Shwezet IDP camp. He returned to our village to do the unfinished cultivation the paddy field. He came back when he had transplanted the paddy. He moved along with us when we came here. Here we needed to spend money because my children were back to school. We are provided food by the camp but the children need pocket money. He went along with the hired people to drive cows for sale. He was arrested in May. He had lived with his relatives in Ta Law Gyi before he came to live with us. Now he is 23 years old. Until today, he has never been a KIA soldier. He was beaten when he was arrest at Ta Law Gyi. They asked him if he was from KIA and beat him. He fainted and collapsed at that time. He was confined to dark cell when he arrived here. They beat and interrogated them one by one. Therefore, he was suffering pain all over his body and he asked one for medicine. Even now he is saying that he cannot here properly. They hit his head with the butt of a gun. We bought and sent vegetables to send to them. The hired someone else to cook for them. Last time when we went there to meet him, he was crying. I am like his mother since he has lived with us for 12 years. He ordered what he needed when we met there. Last visit to prison cost me Ks. 25,000. Sometimes I spent Ks. 15,000 and other times Ks. 30,000. The day of court appointment for hearing the case would cost me only Ks. 10,000. His name is not in our house registration and it is hard for us to meet him. (Burma Prison Department use to order if someone wants to see an accused, they must see a house registration document.) So we sent money to him through someone else, but he never received the whole amount. When sent I viss (3 kgs) of meat to him, he would not receive even half a viss. So, he told me not to send anything to him until 2 myself met him on the day of court appointment. He told me not come because other people kept half. At first we did not know about it. After 2-3 visits we asked him and learned that not everything we sent reached him. I have spent about Ks. 200,000 – 300,000. I can’t remember very well. Last time he said he was not feeling well and I sent him money, medical treatment fees must be paid, Ks. 5,000 for each injection. We have a lot of difficulties at home once he is not here. My sons go to school and I have to look after the youngest child. So I cannot earn money. I am always in need of money to visit him in jail and to buy medicine for the younger kids when they get sick. I have a lot of difficulties. Last time he had skin disease and the medicine was sent. Kachin herbal medicine was also given. Medical doctor’s prescription was needed for English medicine. If the medicine is for Ks. 2000, we have to pay the doctor Ks 7,000.

U Dayau Tang Gun has a traditional music band and earns a living by entertainment along with over 40 orphans in his residence. An explosion broke out in his house on 13 November 2011. At that time he was in Nam Si Awng (110 miles far from Myitkyina where explosion occurred) along with his pastor. On his way homes, he was arrested by Mohnyin Police and sent back to Myitkyina. His wife received an injury on her heel from the explosion. Altogether 11 children including their two sons and orphans. The wounded were taken to hospital but interrogated the whole night without any medical treatment.

Dayau Tang Gun and his wife have been prosecuted for contact with KIA, explosion, concealment, arson, murder, and causing injuries for over a year now. (Actually this bomb is installed by the Military Intelligence, because Dayau Tang Gun and his family belief in Independence Christian, which is not similar to the Baptist Christian. Independence Christian name is close with Kachin Independence. This is why military thinks he has close relations with KIO/KIA)
The Oral Statement of Lu Lu Mai (Daughter of Dayau Tang Gun and Kadu Ja Dim)

Right after the explosion at 8:15 pm I took the injured children to the hospital. We care for orphans and we have many children in our home. I did not meet my mother. But I heard what had happened to her. My father goes on a trip at that time. Later, my mother, my older sister, U Maung (my older sister’s husband) and Lawt Awng (my older sister’s son), followed me. My mother’s leg was broken and the police took her to another room in the hospital as if they would wrap bandage on her leg. My older sister and U Maung were accommodated in separate rooms. The next morning they took me to the explosion site and asked me to identify each body there. I was the only one without any injury and they asked me to do it when I saw those bodies I fainted (crying). Again they took me to the morgue and asked me to identify more bodies there. Over ten people died my older brother and my younger brother died at the explosion site. My sister-in-law (my older brother’s wife) and U Maung were kept in intensive care unit for a week. My sister in law was released later. U Maung was not released. They also took away my mother with her broken leg. At first, we stayed in a hall of our independent Christian church. My older had broken back and she was discharged from the hospital after over a month. I was the only one taking care of over ten children and running mad. They often came and interrogated us. When the explosion happened, my mother was arrested but we did not inform my father because we did not want him to worry. But later we learned that my father had also been arrested. We have not met him for about a month. The soldiers came and informed us that nothing harm was done to my father. I did not know that they had arrested my father. I am caring for my older sister’s son Law Awng all the time. His father and his grand mother were not there. He missed them and he was crying all the time. I feel pity on him so much. It is more than I can say. It would be good if I could bring my mother home. It would be better if my mother were arrested when she was fine. I feel pity on my mother because she was arrested when two of her sons were dead.

Every visit to the court cost me Ks. 40,000. The church has paid over 3 million kyats. Six people are being prosecuted in this case and a lot of money has been spent. Our lawyer is Ms. Doi Bu. At present they are being prosecuted for explosion, murder, arson and injury at together cases. My father has been accused as a collaborator. At first, I thought they said so because my father was the host. Later, I was not sure the reason. They said he had been listed as the collaborator with KIA because his band had played for KIA sometime around 2008 – 2009.

The Oral Statement of Dayau Hkawn Bu (Older daughter of Dayau Tang Gun + Kadu Ja Dim)

I am the older daughter. My father’s name is Dayau Tang Gun. He is 53 years old. My mother’s name is Kadu Ja Dim (Htu Raw). She is 52 years old. We are 5 children. Oldest son and youngest son died at the explosion. The second son is now in Malaysia. We heard that he was shocked and about to run insane when he heard the news from home. At present my father, my mother and my husband Than Htaik Aung are still in prison. U Brang Ra is staying in our home as an IDP. It was 8:30 pm in the evening of 13 November 2011 when the bomb exploded. Usually there was no electricity. But there was power that evening and I was watching TV with my mother. Suddenly, there was a loud explosion. I thought that a motorbike tyre had exploded. When I got up, the ceiling fell and I became unconscious. When I came back to my senses, my mother was calling my name “Ma Hkawn, Ma Hkawn” and walking me up. But I could not get up because my back pained very much. I look down stair and saw my husband but I could not walk anymore. I called him to collect me and my mother. He placed my son outdoor and my mother brought me down stairs. He helped me climb down stairs. Then, I was taken to the hospital in a three-wheeler taxi. My back was dislocated. Since, I haven’t seen my mother and my family members. Later, I learned that Sa-Ya-Hpa came and took away my mother. My mother had injury in her ankle. My mother was said to have been denied sleep but interrogated the whole night. We did not know that our family members died that way. We were shown the photographs.

At present he is being prosecuted at Myitkyina Township Court.

The Oral Statement of Daw Lu Mai (U Brang Ra’s wife)

In our village Ga Ra Yang, the Government troop and KIA fought battles. Therefore our family fled to Myitkyina empty-handed last November. We came and stayed at Dayau Tang Gun’s home, to meet our daughter there. At 8:30 pm on 13 November 2011 evening, an explosion occurred there. I was stricken unconscious. I did not remember anything. When I came back to consciousness, my body below my waist could not move. At that time the fire brigade, the police, and other authorities had already arrived. They board the wounded ones on the three-wheelers. My oldest daughter was hospitalized. Her breast was wounded. The injury was not serious but she vomited blood. My lower back was broken. I heard that my husband was also injured. The next morning two members of Sa Ya Hpa flanked and took him away. Since that time our family members had been under house-arrest. After I got well and I was discharged from the hospital, I still could not inquire about him.
We were not allowed to go anywhere. We could see him only one month and 15 days after he had been arrested and taken away. He later told me that he was hung up side down in Thi Thant prison and beaten with a club. He said he was forced to kneel on pebbled paths and tortured in many different ways. I was running mad. My 5 years old daughter died the night of the incident. My husband was arrested. Our older daughter is in grade 4 this year. I am earning alone to make ends meet at home. I am carrying my husband’s duty now. I do odd jobs to earn money for household expense and for going to appear at court appointments. My lower back is injured and I cannot work very well. I am uneducated and I don’t know what to do about court procedures. U Zau Lum is doing the job. My husband has no association with KIA / KIO. He is only an ordinary farmer and supporting our family members. We fled here because the war broke out there. His health is not so good either. Therefore, KIA does not want him for service. He only stays at home and does farming. Not to mention about bombs, he does not know even how to repair bicycles. I need to spend at least Ks. 30,000 every time I go to appear at court appointment. Some time I spent Ks. 50,000 including the taxi fare, purchase of his needs, and fees at prison. One visit to see the prisoner costs Ks. 20,000. I have spent about Ks. 400,000 / 500,000. I have to work in my poor health because there is no one at home to earn money. He is first priority. Family member at home need no extra expenses. Since his health is poor, I need to buy him medicine. I worry about him only. He is innocent.

At present he is being prosecuted at Myitkyina Township Court.
The Oral Statement of Daw Nang Shwe Nan Be (U Dau Lum’s wife)

At 10:00 am in the next morning after the explosion at Dayau Tang Gun’s home, two Sa Ya Hpa personnel came and took him away. He was released at 5:00 pm that evening. At 10:00 am in the morning 15 November 2011, Sa Ya Hpa authorities came with a van and arrested him. After that we could not meet him anymore. I am pregnant but I went to the superintendent of No. 1 Police station. I told him that I wanted to see U Dau Lum but he replied that no one was allowed to see him. I used to be a government employee, and then I knew how to talk to the authorities. I told the police superintendent and a policeman on duty that U Dau Lum had no association with KIA / KIO and all of our siblings were government servants. The policeman on duty looked into a record book and said, “U Dau Lum is completely clear”. The police officer told the Sa Ya Hpa personnel not to torture him because we were a government servant family. He was detained in Thi Thant (this jail is call Thi Thant which means separated confinement) jail for a short time and moved to No. 1 police station. He said, “They would not tolerate”. They said he was arrested because he failed to register the guest list at star guesthouse. He had worked there for only four months. In the past, he went to Hpakant and worked in jade mines. He used to send enough mercy to support our family members. His mother has poor health and he cannot go anywhere because he is the only son. His older sister who is living in America invited him but his mother would not allow him to go. She wants him to stay beside her deathbed. His case is not in Dayau Tang Gun’s case. The police knew that he was innocent. But they said, “It is order from the superiors. The arrest warrant came from the Ministry of Home Affairs. We can do nothing. Everything will be all right when you are at the court”. His lawyer is Daw Than Than Win. But for penniless people like us will have nothing left when we reach the court. They have arrested the head of our family and now they say that things will be all right when we get to the court. What should we do? He should be released if he is innocent. It is almost time for my children to go back to school. We have no money and the children cannot be sent to school yet. His mother often has heart attack because of his situation. I worry that his mother may die before he is released from jail we have had all kinds of problems here since they arrested him. I am four months pregnant and how can I care for these children? How can I earn money for delivery expenses? I am really upset. I know he would handle these problems if he were home. We cannot send our oldest son to kindergarten because we have no money. The children are affected too. He is asking about his father all the time but I could not answer him. I took him to his father in prison, but he was so surprised that we came back home without saying a word to his father. After that he never asked about his father. I feel very bad that he has trauma from meeting his father. Does the government realize our family members are suffering because they have detained the innocent man? Is it enough by saying “Everything will be all right when you get to the court?” who will compensate for our sufferings and trauma?

Date of interview : 24 September 2012

A Brief Account of Detention

Bawk La was a member of Dayau Tang Gun’s music band in 2006. Since 2007, he has worked as an employee at a construction company in charge of its security in Kampai Ti. In August 2011, he and his wife came down to Myitkyina for his wife’s delivery. He also did jade business with Seng Hkum (Dayau Tang Gun’s oldest son). He was arrested from his home by two policemen on 15 November 2011 because he had been going and coming to Dayau Tang Gun’s home until the explosion incident. At present, he is being prosecuted at Myitkyina Township Court.

The Oral Statement of Daw Lee Kyu

We met in Kampai Ti while he was working there. We got married in May 2011, two or three years after we first met. We came down to Myitkyina in August 2011 because I was going to give birth. Five policemen came and arrested my husband at 5:30 pm in the evening on 15 November 2011. We could not find him anywhere. After they had taken him away they replied he was not there whenever we inquired about him. About one month later, upon Yup Zau Hkawng’s (a rich man who involves peace committee in Kachin issue) request they allowed us to see him. I delivered my baby on the eight day after my husband was arrested. So, I myself did not go to see him. My family members went there. I was not allowed to see him right after my delivery. I dared not ask him if they tortured him at the interrogation. He did not tell me either. During interrogation they said, “If you don’t admit or sign on the agreement sheet we will capture your wife and kick her pregnant belly”. All your family members will be arrested”. They arrested him by accusing him of the association with U Dayau Tang Gun’s son. He went to Dayau Tang Gun’s home for jade business.

I think I have visited the court more than 100 times now. Every time I go there, I have to spend over Ks. 10,000 to Ks. 20,000. No need to pay lawyer fees anymore lawyer Ms. Doi Bu is doing the job for us. I was told that my husband has been suffering from cold and headache in jail. I hate the police a lot because they arrested my husband who is a very simple man without investigating properly. I could not sleep 2-3 nights after he was arrested. I sat weeping the whole night. The sight of my husband being hand-cuffed was always in my mind. I was scared and worried a lot. I was disheartened at the time of my delivery.

The Oral Statement of Bawk La’s Mother

Bawk La did not pass grade 10. So, he went to his older sister in Kampai Ti and worked there as a watchman at the construction project. He was earning 800 Yuan (Ks. 100,000) per month. He started working there in 2007. When it was time for his wife to give birth, they came down here in August 2011. He did some jade business when he arrived here. He did it with Dayau Tang Gun. I think he was arrested when he went there to show some jade stones.

Two policemen came at about 5-6 pm. on 15 November 2011. They told him that they had something to ask him and took him away. Later, they handcuffed him behind his back and pushed him into the vehicle. I did not know where he was taken away. I inquired in No. 1 police station and No. 2 police station but they told me that he was not there. Later, I went to the Kachin State auxiliary police department and inquired about his. A person on duty said that he was there. Another one said that he was not there. I was weeping. My daughter-in-law was due for delivery. Eventually, the man told us that my son was there. I could not eat anything for about five days. I was informed to go there with community leaders. But I was not allowed to see him. On the sixth day I was told that he had been detained by SB (Special Branch), when I went to SB, they told me that they did not keep him there. On the 7th day, I was told that he had been transferred to No. 1 police station.

I wanted to make it sure and brought his clothes there. They returned me the clothes he was wearing at the time of his arrest. Then I learned that my son was there. My heart was a little lightened. One weak later we applied for the remand.

We could meet him when we asked Yup Zau Hkawng for favor to get the remand for the third time on 27 November 2011. As soon as I met him, I was shocked and I cried. My son also cried. He was behind the iron bars. He said he could not hear properly because they had struck him on his temple with the butt of a gun. When I cried more, he told me not to cry because God would help us. Before 2006, my son was working with salary at jade land Myanmar traditional music band. His father also worked there. His job was vaccinating and injecting to course and chickens.

Now, I am spending at least Ks. 10,000 on each visit to court appointment. I have to go at least once a week. I have spent nearly Ks. 1 million (Ks. 1,000,000) since he was arrested.

This happened because he said the wrong way. He said he did not make confession when I asked him later. He lost his hearing after his temple had been struck for three days. I had been crying the whole week without eating and sleeping properly because of worry after my son was arrested. I felt like a ribbon of mine was removed because we had never experienced such things before. My heart is quivering even while I am talking now.

Now, we have to contribute Ks. 500 for their fund every time we go to see him in jail. I slapped my daughter-in-law’s hand while she was giving the money telling her that I had paid two times before.
When I got angry, the shopkeeper nearby said the man must have been drunk that was not the workplace for a person getting drunk. I paid Ks. 1,000 and he took it.
I felt like being taken out any heart and my bones crushed. At first they came without any community leader accompanying them and said they would ask him a few questions. I thought he was simply called for inquiry. Later, I had to look for him the whole night without sleeping. I thought of any wrongs I did. I wondered if it was wrong that I had sent him to learn traditional music. I sent him there out of my love for our culture. I cheered myself by regularizing that it was the in-born duty of every Wunpawng Kachin. As long as there is discrimination between the majority ethnic and minority ethnic groups. I encouraged my son not to be upset.

The Oral Statement of Nhkm Awng Mai (Zau Ban’s older brother)

My younger brother is an officially enrolled KIA soldier. I can’t remember when he first went there to serve in the army. He fled to Hpakant on a motorbike because he did not want to be a soldier. I heard that he had sold his motorbike and invested about Ks. 150,000 in his brother-in-law’s business. His brother-in-law did not return his money even after a long time. So, he stole his brother-in-law’s motorbike and came down to Myitkyina. When he arrived at home in Myitkyina, a man named Wunna told him not to stay at home. He was told to stay in a hotel. He was arrested that night. A pair of pliers and a five feet long iron card were discovered in his bag. He didn’t even know that those things were there. It seems that our own family members plotted against him. My younger brother told the names of his comrades during interrogation and all of his friends were nabbed. I don’t know what to do now. We cannot send him the things he ordered because we have no money. We cannot follow his case either. We have no money because we are just farmers. I am at my wits’ end. Now, we heard that the government had hired a lawyer for him.

A Brief Account of Detention

U Ying Zung lives in upper Mawhpawng Village. At 7:00 am. in the morning on 8 May 2012, two Sa Ya Hpa trucks came and asked him about his son. He told them that his son was not there, and he was arrested for telling a lie. At present he is being prosecuted with 1908 Unlawful Associations Act, art.17(1) at Myitkyina Township Court.

The Oral Statement of Zung Hkaw (U Ying Zung’s son)

My younger brother is a KIA soldier due to being a Kachin. He has to serve KIA as militia. We boys are blamed if we do not serve KIA. So he has to do the job. He came to stay in the village all the time after 2-month military training. They called him back to service when the civil war resumed in June last year. My father was arrested when he came to visit our home. I learned that my father was arrested when I returned home from the farm my father said that my younger brother went to Hpakant three months ago, and he was arrested for telling a lie.

Our relatives from Shwezet are following the case for us. We don’t know anything. At first we borrowed Ks. 500,000 and gave them. They said that it was not enough. So, we sold the cart-bullocks and gave them another Ks. 800,000. It has been two months since I borrowed money with the interest of 8 % now. We sold two buffaloes to pay the debt but paid Ks. 1,200,000 to the lawyer fees again. We are plowing our farm with the bullocks hired from other people. We have spent about Ks. 2,700,000 in my father’s case. Our relative who is working or our case said the money was paid to police, judged, and prison physician. I dare not to there either. Our lawyer told me not to come after, because I could be arrested too. Therefore, only my wife goes there when the food is sent. I never entered there.
The reason we sent money was for my father. He has an ulcer in his belly. It appears at its time, twice a year. It is something like cancer. I was paying them the money with the expectation of my father’s release on bill if the medical doctor’s recommendation allows him for this disease. He is not a KIA soldier either.

We have had a lot of trouble since my father was arrested. A lot of money is spent in visiting him at court appointments. I am not sure if the money is enough. I have given them another Ks. 200,000. My mother also has heart attack and she became ill after my father was arrested. She is scared every time she sees army trucks. I am taking medicines from Thazin Clinic. I cannot eat meals properly because I am in depression. My mother told me that none of the community leaders was with them when they came and arrested my father. The next time soldiers from cavalry troops near our village came and inquired if KIA soldiers gathered here. My mother was more frighten when she saw them.

The Oral Statement of Tang Gun

He has been living in lower Burma since childhood. He moved to Kachin State because he missed his homeland. It has been 7-8 years since he arrived in Kachin state. On 8 May 2012 morning I went out of my house to fetch water. I didn't know that they were there in front of my house waiting to arrest someone. Then a policeman saw me and asked me where I was going. I replied, “To fetch water”. He said, “you come to fetch water very early in the morning. You come to spy on us, don’t you?” I said, “No, I fetch water for my wife before I go to work because my wife is pregnant.” They did not believe me and took me away in their vehicle upon suspicion”. They did not torture me in jail but they asked me a lot of questions like where I was born, where I grew up, when and why I came to this village, etc. They detained me for 11 days and released me. But we are heavily indebted and cannot repay yet because my wife and my older sister had borrowed money needed for inquiring about my case. All the money was spent when they paid here a little and there a little. We had more difficulties later when my wife gave birth to our baby. My troubles and suffering are beyond expression. My family members spent a lot of money because of me. None of my family members knew when I was arrested. I was arrested that morning at 6:30 am. but any wife was informed by a neighbor woman about it only at 7:00 am. She did not believe her and told her that I went to fetch water. Our community leaders did not know anything about my arrest. They were surprised when I was released later.

Name of court : Myitkyina Township Court
Act of the case : 1908 Unlawful Associations Act, art. 17(1)
Verdict :
Date of interview : 5 September 2012

A Brief Account of Detention

Mr. Dan Mai Awng is earning a living as a three-wheeler in Mali Zup Yang village, Myitkyina. He has quit driving his three-wheeler and stayed home since the fighting between KIA and the government troops resumed. He spent two nights at his friend Zau Ban’s home before Zau Ban was arrested related to explosion case. Zau Ban was a KIA soldier and Dan Mai Awng and his father were arrested upon suspicion by Sa Ya Hpa, on 8 May 2011. At present Dan Mai Awng is being prosecuted at Myitkyina Township and Kachin State Court.

The Oral Statement of Pausa Bawk Naw (Dan Mai Awng’s father)

My son was arrested together with me. The reason of arrest was as follows: Kayang Nu and Zau Ban from Mali Zup Yang village came down to Mawhpawng village along with my son. My son returned home because I did not allow him stay out overnight. He rode Kayang Nu’s motorbike with Zau Ban, when they reached here, it was not dark yet, and they went out to drink. At about 9:00 pm it was late so he could not said the motorbike along with Zau Ban. So Zau Ban spent the night in our home upon his request. That night, I was in Mali Zup Yang village. They were said to have gone to Myitkyina the next day. Zau Ban left my son behind and returned by the motorbike alone. Two days later, Kayang Nu came to our home saying that Zau Ban had sold his motorbike. Zau Ban’s relative Wunna collected and returned the motorbike to him. When I heard that Zau Ban also pawned his older sister’s motorbike, I told my son not to associate with him.

A bomb was found on the corner of the road entering our compound. Two weeks and two days after that, my son and I were arrested.

Ying Zung who was arrested together with my son told me that he heard Dau Mai Awng was struck twice during interrogation. Again he heard him being kicked out of the exit after interrogation when I saw him the next day, he was terrified. The policemen there also said he might not have been the offender. He is greatly scared. I don’t think so either. But I am not sure.

Now, we are following up the case with lawyer U Mya Thein. The cases under the Act are number 69, 70, 71. The 69 case is under way at sub-district court. The 70 and 71 cases are in the process at the district court. We pay the lawyer Ks. 300,000 because there are two courts in two locations. At first he charged us only Ks. 200,000. Now, we go to court appointments twice a week. I have to go and send food to him although I am not feeling well otherwise he would be starring. On the days of court appointment he doesn’t eat anything the whole day after breakfast at 8:00am. So, I buy him at least some drinking water twice a week. I have to spend at least over Ks. 10,000 on every visit. When he is sick I buy medicine and spend about Ks 20,000.

Once he is not home, I myself drive the three-wheeler. We cannot clear the grass and bushed in our compound. I cannot travel far because of his court appointments. From the beginning he refused to go to military training because he was scared when I told him to receive the training. He does not do any work at home either. He is afraid to be a Kachin soldier. Since the resumption of fighting he has not been driving three-wheeler to Mali Zup Yang side.

The Oral Statement of Pausa Naw Bawk

Usually I am at three-wheeler stand at 6:00 am. That morning I had gastric pain and returned home to take rest. I was told that some questions came and I get up from my bed. They came to my door and asked me if I was the household. They grabbed my hand behind my book. I was holding a radio in my hand. There were two vehicles parked in front of our house. While they were trying to board me in one of the vehicles, my son Dan Mai Awng was also arrested and put in the same or with me. There was Hpauyam Yu Gai in the vehicle. My son was tied together with him hand to hand. As the vehicle started to leave I asked Hpauyam Yu Gai what had we done wrong. The men yelled me to keep silent or they would shoot me dead and pointed the gun in my head. They also arrested Brang Li, a carpenter who was there to roof the house when they went there to roof the house when they went there to arrest Zung Ying. Then we came to Myitkyina. On the way the car following us made phone call at Pangmati village but they sent us to Myitkyina without waiting for that car. Six of us were there when we reached Kachin State interrogation unit (Thi-thant). Zau Ban the one who mentioned our names and Maru Tang Gun were in the other vehicle. Zau Ban was arrested the previous night. We were arrested the next day because he mentioned our name during the interrogation. The third group had the 66-year-old man Ying Zung. All of us made seven. Six of us were put in a hall and my son was confined to a dark cell.

At noon, a policeman and SB personnel came to interrogate us. They asked me if I knew Zau Ban. They brought Zau Ban to me.

My wife had informed them that I had dysentery because of internal bleeding in stomach. So, they asked me a few questions and left one alone. We were not provided drinking water or food the whole morning. At about 3:00 pm a policeman on duty there bought me some drinking water. Another policeman brought 10 small packets of cakes to me. After I had eaten, he threw cakes to others at 8:00 pm. He told them not eat then but keep them for later time. At about 9:00 pm. They were allowed to eat those cakes. My son was forced to sleep in the dark cell. I met my son again only three days after the arrest. But nothing could be sent to us yet. On the fifth day of detention, we were allowed to take shower. I saw Zau Ban once again that day. His right eye was surrounded by blue skin. The next time I saw him, I found his eyelids, his cheeks and his lips had been cut by razor blade. On the day of going out for remand, my hands were also tied with a rope because they ran out of handcuffs.

At about 9:00 pm after dinner, I was interrogated one more time. They interrogated my father, my mother, my older brother, my sister, and all the children. They did not ask me about my siblings because if I talked about all of them it will be a long time until daybreak. They accused me of accommodating a KIA soldier in our home. I don’t stay at home most of the time because I am a three-wheeler driver. I told them that he could be my son’s friend. Zau Ban said that he spent one night in our house before. Later, he said that he slept there two nights. When they asked Zau Ban if the hosts know that he spent the night in their home, he said “no”. They showed him to me but I did not know him. So, I was released.

On the 11th day our arrest, we were out to the interrogation. I signed the confession sheet without reading it and left because I was overjoyed. I escorted my son and Ying Zung to No. 1 Police office. Then, I sent Zau Ban there. I was told not to travel long trips because I would have to be interrogated again. I would not sleep 5 days and 4 nights at the interrogation center. One group after another came and interrogated me. Sa Ya Hpa also came 2-3 times. SB (Special Branch) interrogated me too. The old man Ying Zung was interrogated beside me. I heard they beat him once.

I paid Ks 500 for one tablet of paracetomol (pain relieve medicine) and one tablet of decolgen (pain relieve medicine). Now, people die in jail every day. Some inmates have no money. It’s real hot inside here. Everyday, 3-4 people die here.

During interrogation by Sa Ya Hpa they said, “Do you know where you Kachin People came from? You were born when we raped women at the front lines”.

The Oral Statement of Daw Ma Hkawn (U Brang Seng's wife)

Our family members have been here in Shwezet IDP camp since last December. Brang Seng went down to Ta Law Gyi because the village superintendent called for him. Front line in charge Aung Kyaw Oo and his men from Kha La Ya (37) troop were the ones who arrested him. Aung Kyaw Oo called him and conducted a meeting. He kept him the next day also saying that they would have another meeting. But he was detained and carried away at about 11:00 pm. that night. The night he was arrested, 3-4 gun shots were heard in front of his home. He was blindfolded and turned 2-3 rounds before he was taken away. The soldiers yelled at him loading the gun and telling him to pray because they were about to kill him. Another soldier shouted that they would use the sword because they did not want to waste a bullet. Later, he was taken away to a monastery.

I went down to Ta Law Gyi the day after my husband was arrested. I approached the village superintendent (village head) and asked for the permission to take his clothes to the detention center. But I was not granted the request. The following day, I myself went to the front line commander in-charge and asked for the permission. I told him hat I wanted to send some food and warm clothes to my husband because it was winter. But the commander replied that they did not arrest him and he was not there; and even if they had arrested him they would be providing him food. He told me not to come here again. I went there several times but I did not meet my husband. I paid money to the men on night duty there and sent some clothes asking them to inquire about my husband. Then, he received any letter and I received his letter. I had to pay more if I paid the sentry man. I have to pay them Ks. 4,000 – Ks. 5,000 at every time. When sent money it never reached my husband. Last time I sent Ks. 10,000 and some materials. He received the items but not the money. I requested the village superintendent to ask the authorities the permission for me to meet my husband but it was not granted. I tried to obtain help from village elders and Shan village council members but they said they were afraid of the commander. I paid Ta Law Gyi police officer some money and requested to inquire about my husband’s case, but he was told by the army front line commander not to discuss Brang Seng’s case but other issues. The village superintendent, the village elders, and police officer were of no help. So, I went up to Myitkyina. I met some lawyers there and appealed to Nay Pyi Daw, running around with my 5-month old baby. After two appeals, my husband was sent back to Myitkyina. He was arrested on 2 January and sent back to Myitkyina on 2 February. I did not meet him during that one month.

That morning at 3:00 am when they were transported to Myitkyina the prison guards shouted at them to come out of the cell. The inmates were allowed to urinate only and driven into the vehicle. My husband was pushed into the front part of the vehicle and locked up inside. At dawn they were allowed to go out for urinating once and confined to the vehicle until 9:00 am. The whole day they were kept there without any food. There were not provided even drinking water. They arrived at Pangmati village at night. As soon as they arrived, they were taken away to Sa Ya Hpa unit. I went to Sa Ya Hpa together with village superintendent but I was not allowed to see my husband. He was tortured and interrogated at Sa Ya Hpa. In Ta Law Gyi also, he was beaten and interrogated with his head covered with a plastic bag. The first three days of interrogation, he was not given food or drinking water. By the time I met him, his wounds had already disappeared. But he said he was beaten during interrogation at Sa Ya Hpa Unit. Sa Ya Hpa stripped him naked and forced him to kneel on cement floor with pebbles. He said that they also electric shocked him. after being tortured and interrogated at Sa Ya Hpa, he was sent to No. 1 police station. When he arrived there asked for Ks. 20,000. I was away in Nay Pyi Daw, at that time and lady preachers from KBC (Kachin Baptist Convention) sent the money to him. He was kept 5-days in No. 1 police station and later sent to Prison. I was told that people saw him there limping along when he walked. He became half-deaf. A one-foot wide bed had to be purchased in prison. Otherwise, he would have to sleep beside the excrement dump.

Now he has court appointment once a week. Sometimes, two court appointments in a week. On other occasions no suspect was questioned at court in 2-3 months. So far, we are dealing with court appointments. The other two inmates who were arrested together with him are Zau Seng and a Shan (ethnic) man. Every month they have 6-7 court appointments.

I have two children. They are 5 and 2. I am sure that was discharged. Now, he is being prosecuted with 17(1) for communicating with KIA, telephoning, supporting foodstuffs and recruiting soldiers for KIA. The prison cells were crowded and he had itchy skin. Every time I go to court appointment. I brought medicine at the beginning I gave him medicine for wounds receive from torture. I am getting tired of going to court appointments. I feel like we are paying for being Kachin. Now they have only one suspect to be questioned at court. The prosecutor from Sa Ya Hpa has not appeared at court for about a month now. He did not come although he had been summoned by court. I inquired the jury if the case could be dropped. He said. “no” I have spent about Ks. 4 million (Ks. 4,000,000). I have gone to Nay Pyi Daw twice. I have appeared at court appointment very often. I am surprised because we have never experienced like this.

A Brief Account of Detention

Sama Zau Seng is a farmer living in Kyunpintha, Ta Law Gyi village Waigmaw Township. His father is a member of KIA militia. He was arrested on the evening of 1 January 2012 by Kha La Ya (37) troop accusing him of communicating with KIA. At present, he is being prosecuted with 1908 Unlawful Associations Act,cr.17(1) at Myitkyina township court.

The Oral Statement of Zau Seng’s Younger Sister

I was told by my Shan neighbors that they had heard people were being beaten in the monastery on 1 January 2012 night. They were said to have arrested in Kyunpintha, Ta Law Gyi village. I didn’t go there. My sister-in-law (Zau Seng’s wife) went there to see him. At that time his face was swollen. He had knife wounds on his eyebrows too. He was captured by the first troop of the army convey. He was said to have been arrested on account of contact with my father. Actually, my father is a KIA militiaman. He is also leader in our village. Now our family members are dispersed. Zau Seng was brought back to Myitkyina after one month of his arrest. At first he was confined to the monastery in the upper part of the village, but later he was transferred to another monastery in the lower part of the village. Zau Seng never received military training. He always stayed at home. Now his wife has given birth to a baby and only my mother is looking after them. My mother is getting old and she cannot earn money properly anymore. Every time I go there to meet him, I spend Ks. 20,000-30,000. When I sent food to him in jail, there were many inmates from Ta Law Gyi and he share the food with all of them. So, he could eat only a little portion. Therefore, I have to bring enough food for his friends there too. At first there were only four people from Ta Law Gyi. But there are many of them. He still has wounds on his back. We can send him only Burmese traditional medicine. English medicines can be given him only with the prescriptions from a medical doctor. When he went to jail, a 12-in wide space had to be purchased with Ks. 5,000. Now that it had been 12 months and we have had 32 court appointments. We spend Ks. 25,000 for every visit.

The Oral Statement of Zau Seng’s wife

No one told me about his arrest. I went there to send him some food and bedding, but the soldiers told me that he was not kept there. After incessant appeal, they let me see him. At that time I saw knife wounds on his eyebrows. I thought that he could not see any more. There was knife wound on his neck too. I asked them if they cut him with knives, but they told me that these wounds were open sores. After a month and a half detention in Ta Law Gyi, he was blindfolded and sent to Myitkyina on a speedboat. I was left behind with pregnancy. We still had to harvest our own mustard farm and also my mother-in-law’s mustard farm. I was in great trouble. I have gone to court appointments for 20 times. My mother-in-law is also busy with earning money and caring for our child. He is said to have been accused with 17(1). He never went to military training. I would not have married him if he had been a soldier. I married him after proper investigation about him. From the beginning, he always stayed at home because of his poor health. I am upset because I have too many court appointments. We need money for daily expenses. So, I am staying with my older brother’s family. It would be good that he be sentenced if he is guilty or released if he is innocent. I am feeling like I am living in a dark world when he is not at home. It has now been 8 months since he was arrested. I would rather that he be acquitted. I don’t know how much money has been spent. My mother in law and my sister-in-law paid the expenses.

A brief account of detention

Maung Saing went to U Htwe’s house for cow trade. He was arrested there by Sa Ya Hpa accusing him of being the confidant of a KIA officer, and he was taken away to Ta Law Gyi monastery on 7 December 2012. Altogether, 11 people were arrested but the other 10 were released the same night. They detained Maung Saing. It has been almost a year since he has been prosecuted under current act 17(1), at Myitkyina township court.

The Oral Statement of Maung Saing’s mother

He works in our Ta Law Gyi paddy field. He is also engaged in cow trade. On 7 December 2011, he went to U Htwe Aung’s house for cow business. There, Sa Ya Hpa came and arrested him accusing him of being the confidant of a KIA captain. Eleven of them were taken away to the monastery. They were tortured there in that monastery for about a month. Zau Seng, Brang Seng, Seng La, and Aung Thein Htaik were among who were tortured together with him. Their family members were not allowed to send meals to them. No one was allowed to see them. It lasted about one month. I fell pity on them a lot. I was unhappy too. I could not sleep well. I don’t think they had to torture them without being murderers. Later, someone from Khad Cho village who went to court appointment told my daughter that Maung Saing had been sent to Myitkyina prison. Then, I learned that he was in Myitkyina prison. I thought he was still detained in Ta Law Gyi. Only on the day of court appointment could I meet him. He said that they were blindfolded and taken away in a truck early in the morning. They stopped torturing when they arrived at Sa Ya Hpa office in Myitkyina. They were told to have been arrested out of suspicion. We have spent Ks. 2 million for his court appointments. (Note; Zau Seng and Brang Seng cases were lodged to the Supreme Court but no success. Before lodging they were disappeared then we lodge this case to Supreme Court, which said they were not disappeared these cases were already in the Myitkyina Township Court. They have been arrested without warrant for a long time.)

A Brief Account of detention

U Brang Shawng came to Jan Mai Kawng IDP camp in Myitkyina with his family on 29 July 2011 fleeing from fighting in Npawn. On 17 June 2011, over 10 people including Sa Ya Hpa captain Kyawzwa Lin with community superintendent came and arrested him while he was serving there as the warden of IDP dorm (1). He was tortured at Sa Ya Hpa office. At present he is being prosecuted by the 1908 Unlawful Associations Act, art 17(1) at Myitkyina Township Court.

The Oral Statement of Ze Nyoi (Lahtaw Brang Shawng’s Wife)

My name is Ze Nyoi. My husband’s name is Lahtaw Brang Shawng. He was arrested at 9:00 pm on 17 August 2012. They came to the IDP camp and arrested him. My family have come and stayed here in Jan Mai Kawng since the IDP camp was established. He was arrested on Sunday after I was just released from the hospital on Friday. I was still very weak and unable to walk properly when they came and took him away. We came to stay here on 29 July 2011. We have always been in the camp since we arrived here. They came and arrested him with the accusation of my husband involving in bomb explosion. They had no evidence or warrant for arrest over 10 people were arrested. Four of them were arrested inside the IDP camp. They were told they were going to be questioned on the explosion. Saya Aung Myat, the camp in charge went along with them. When they reached there, they were given seats in the sitting room, and Brang Shawng was led away inside. I asked my husband with they did to him inside. He said that the interrogator told him he had seen him before, and accused him as KIA captain as soon as they reached inside the room. My husband replied that he was not KIA captain, but an ordinary citizen earning his simple living. From that time on, they bound his hands behind his back and began to torture him. They hit his head many times and his nose was bleeding a lot. Now, his mind is not normal and he spoke Burmese when I went to see again and he said that his brain was not normal anymore. He told me that Sa Ya Hpa tortured him for three days. But Saya Aung Myat said he might have been tortured for five days but he did not remember because he became lost consciousness. They left his hands tied behind his back without providing food for three days. Now, his left ear cannot hear at all. His right ear still can hear a little. Sometimes, we had trouble in communication because I said one thing and he heard a different thing. When we talked, sometimes he laughed and spoke Burmese. He is worse now because his hearing is impaired, he spits out blood when he coughs, and he says he cannot talk for a long time and something is wrong inside his chest. When he met Saya Aung Myat the first time, he said that they squeezed his throat and he could not swallow saliva because of pain in the throat. He did not tell me the worst thing that they burned his navel. I heard about from Saya Aung Myat. He told me only what I saw on his face. He showed me two-inches long scar on his face where they burned him. They burned his eyebrows with cigarette fire. I think that scar will remain there for life. Another wound was the scar on one of his thigh where they cut with a knife. They hit six times on both thighs and two people stepped on the bamboo bar that was pressing his shins on the cement floor. The scar on his calf is still visible. He told me that he felt like he was losing his feet when he walked. That was the way they tortured him.

He never smoked or used drugs. He studied up to grade 4 but he is not sharp. He is not much literate. He always asked me how to spell whenever he wanted to write. He would copy down from my draft. He cannot spell his name Brang Shawng properly without my help. He omits some letters. Even his Burmese writing is not correct. His good qualifications are meekness and he is hard working. Every one in IDP camp recommends those good things about him. He is also monitor of camp (2). He would not leave any task unfinished whenever a duty is assigned to him in this camp.

I have had 9 court appointments now. Everything I go to court appointment I have to spend Ks. 8,000–10,000. Sometimes he got sick but I could send medicine for one dosage or two only. I told him to get the medical doctor’s prescription from so that I could give him more medicine. Oh… it was a lot of trouble. He wanted me to see him in prison with permission. But I had no one to look after our child. I told him I would visit him when my younger sister came. One visit to him when my younger sister came. One visit to prison costs at least Ks. 15,000. Every time I go there I have to pay Ks. 1000 at the prison gate. I need Ks. 15,000 if I buy food for him. I dare not tell him that I have no money. Our child was quite fat at first. But the child got sick and became very thin after my husband was taken away.

He was arrest on the 17th and brought back to the camp on the 20th. His face was beaten up and I came back from buying baby rice powder, the soldier were waiting in our room. Later, the vehicle that brought Brang Shawng arrived. The car stopped next to our room and I was looking for Brang Shawng in the car. They pushed him out of the car with his hands tied behind his back. When I saw him, he did not look like my husband anymore. My good-looking husband was unrecognizable and his face was swollen as if he was wearing eyeglasses. His lips were swollen. I gazed at him for 5 minutes and recognized his hair and feet. I broke down. They took him away again. I fainted and my friend carried me to clinic. I was shocked to see my husband. Blood clots below his eyes can be seen even now.
They brought him the next day. But he was not brought indoors. They took photographs of him in front of the door as if he was arrested that day. A police officer took me to our dining room and asked me how many siblings I had. I think he took me indoors because he thought I would weep and faint like the previous day. That day Saya Aung Myat saw blood stains on my husband’s sarong longyi. I did not see that because I was weeping. They had told him to wear the sarong longyi dropped long. Usually he did not wear his longyi that way. Capt. Kyaw Zwa Lin was the one who arrested him. He did not torture my husband. But he was the one who put the sound recorder along with my husband on the day of obtaining remand. On the second court appointment Capt. Kyaw Zwa Lin was questioned. That day our lawyer asked my husband, “Did Capt. Kyaw Zwa Lin fixed the sound recorder on you?” My husband answered, “yes”. His face had no scars on the day of his arrest but they (Sa Ya Hpa) made in their oral statement that my husband had motorbike accident two days before the arrest and he received wounds on his face and legs. He (Brang Shawng) used to go out for odd jobs to earn daily wages during his stay here. He earned extra income to buy food for our baby because my breast produced no milk. I have headache now because he is not here to earn money by doing odd jobs and I have to go to court appointments.

I have been disheartened since, and I have to sign 7-8 times to do it properly. My friend Nang Shen became mentally sick and hospitalized in the asylum for a wear after my husband was arrested and shown in the camp for a number of times. The old folks in the camp were so shocked that they requested the camp manager to grant them transfer to another IDP camp. When Brang Shawng was arrested they said Brang Shawng was a KIA captain with college education. Now, he is interrogated by the army and the explosion is not in the case. He is not someone with college education anymore. They forced him to admit that he had served KIA as a sergeant in 2004. The beatings and torture were reduced only after he admitted so. They showed him a pit in the ground and told him that they would kill him in that hole. He admitted because he worried about me and our family we would encounter hardship when he were dead and gone, and out of love and pity on me because I was always ill and there no one to wash clothes for me. He would have been dead now unless our friends and KBC had not followed up. I could not sleep or eat for about three days after I met him.

On their way home, they encountered the government Kha La Ya (321) army convoy last December. We followed up as soon as we heard that they had been taken away by an army convoy. A Brief Account of Arrest

Nra Naw San had served as a KIA soldier before he became a Militia soldier since the fighting between the Government Army and KIA broke out, he has served in the KIA again. When he was on duty in Ubyit village he was arrested on 29 June 2012. The oral statement of Labang La Seng (Nra Naw San’s cousin)

He was captured on 29 June 2012. The police arrested him for drug abuse. At that time he pointed at them with his gun. Formerly, Naw San had a problem in KIA Brigade (3) where he served a trainer, then he defected to militia. When the political situation became worse. He returned to KIA and served there as a soldier. Now he is the intelligence of Brigade (6). The day after his arrest, he was brought his wife’s house and the whole house was searched. But nothing was found. He said that he was beaten during interrogation on the night he was arrested. His face was swollen when they brought him to his wife’s home. Naw San’s case was drug abuse, possession of ammunition, firing back, and being an insurgent. His pictures are printed on daily newspapers. So, we are told that we can never follow up his case. As I am also a family man I have to earn money and I have gone to the court appointment only once so far. My wife is pregnant and we have a lot of trouble. Less than a week after staying in their house, he was arrested.

The Oral Statement of Ja Hku Lu (Nra Naw San’s wife)

He must be an intelligence assigned by KIA Brigade (6). When I asked him what job he was doing, he just replied, “You know nothing about it”. Therefore I don’t know for sure what job he has been doing. The next day six soldiers came to my mother’s house in Du Kahtawng Qt. in Myitkyina. They search the whole house but found nothing. My husband’s face and neck were swollen when they brought him to our home. Then they kept him in the No. 1 police station again. He was detained in police station No. (1) for about 13 days. We could send meals to him when he was there,. Now, we have gone to court appointments for 10 times, and every visits spent costs me Ks. 20,000. We have spent over Ks. 1 million (Ks. 1,000,000). He is suffering from cough and itchy skin disease. We are not allowed to send English medicine to him in jail. Naw San is being prosecuted by drug case, firing back and insurgence. His pictures are printed in newspapers. At first, we hired lawyer Nwe Nwe Hun. After we had paid Ks. 150,000. She charged us another Ks. 50,000 and we stopped hiring her. We have paid her Ks. 150,000 already. I have a lot of difficulties. I have been pregnant for 8 months now. I am really upset because the due delivery is drawing near and I have to pay the lawyer fees. I dare not stay in Nawng Nang home. I am very disheartened too.

A Brief Account of Arrest

…… (blank)…….

The Oral Statement of Lahpai Roi Bu (Manam Tu’s wife)

I have financial problem because I have a nursing baby and I cannot work to earn money. I have received about Ks. 150,000 from the donation of people inside and outside the IDP camp. I know that my husband will not be treated well in the hands of the enemies. We hire lawyer because it is important that he be not sent to labor camp after the verdict.

We were hiding in the jungle during the fighting. We were preparing to make fences around our paddy field. But there were plenty of mosquitoes coming and we were afraid that children might be infected with malaria. So, we moved to IDP camp. We rented our paddy field. He came to the camp on 16th May. About 14 days later policeman U Tin Htun Aung came and arrested him. He was accused of being a KIA militia. Then he was kept in Sa Ya Hpa for 10 days. He was given meals only on the third day. Then, he was detained in police station (1) for 15 days. He was tortured so terribly that he could not eat anymore. The difficulties are more than I can say. My husband earned money when he was at home. Now that he is not here and we have difficulties.

A Brief Account of Detention

Maung Htawng Zawng was arrested in July 2011 by Waingmaw-based Burmese Military Brigade (88) because he fired at his home in Maingna during the fighting between the military and KIA.

The Oral Statement of Lase Hkawng Naw (Htawng Zawng’s mother)

My son was a KIA soldier before the fighting. He never does any job faithfully. He did not serve in KIA troop very well and came home. In July 2011, the fighting between KIA and Military broke out. So, KIA summoned him. I think he was given a gun. I was not at home during that incident. He seemed to come home drunk. He asked his older brother and his sister-in-law for some money. His brother had no money and did not give anything. He seemed to get angry and fired one shot into the air. The next morning Waingmaw-based Brigade (88) arrested him and took him away. I didn’t know anything about his arrest. I knew it only when the clerk at community administration office told me about it. I didn’t know where to inquired about him. Later, I found him in Myitkyina prison. I can’t remember the dates. We can’t afford to hire a lawyer. I can’t go to court appointment either. We don’t know what a lawyer is like. They say that my son has been given 2 years sentence now. He would be released in May 2013. My son never did any job before. As a mother, I feel bad about my son even though he is good or bad. My feeling is beyond my expression. I have to earn extra money for court appointments too. My son’s health is not good now. I was told that he vomited blood. His health had been damaged too much. I asked him if they beat him or tortured him. He said that he was beaten and tortured a lot. He told me that he is receiving treatment in prison hospital.

The Oral Statement of Htawng Zawng

I was hit with the butt of a gun for two days and two nights at Kha La Ya (58) in Waingmaw. Now I am under 2 years sentence: I am suffering from TB disease in jail. I vomit blood too. The army tortured me so much that I am coughing out blood. Moreover, the itchy skin disease is very common in jail. I don’t know how to cure it. They give me only rice. Mustard broth is the only curry. We are provided two meals a day. The court appointment lasts 7 months. I don’t hire any lawyer. I face the prosecution by myself.

A Brief Account of Detention

He was arrested by Kha La Ya (37) convoy troop in his house while he was waiting for dinner upon arriving from his paddy field. He was tortured and interrogated. Then he was taken to Myitkyina and now he is being prosecuted under 1908 Unlawful Associations Act, art. 17(1).

The Oral Statement of Htoi San Roi Ja (Chyauchyi Brang Shawng's wife)

Brang Shawng was left behind in Ta Law Gyi working in the paddy field. He did not even stay at home. He was staying in his younger brother’s home. I fled to Laiza with my children. He was arrested at about 3:00 pm on 6 February 2012 accusing him of being a KIA militia. I did not see them because I was in Laiza. His younger sister Hkawn Ra saw him taken away. All his face was swollen when I met him. His left ear could not hear anymore. His feet were squeezed between bars and lower parts of his feet are numb. They said they had been searching for him for a long time at the time he was arrested. He said that he might not be the one because he did not do anything. Then, they beat him more. Brang Shawng eventually admitted because he was becoming Paint when his head was covered with plastic bag and he was about to collapse. The first two days after the arrest when he was beaten were the worst. He was provided rice and water but he could not eat or drink because he had been tortured too much.

Not to mention about being a soldier, Brang Shawng has rheumatic complaint and his feet would become swollen when he stayed too long in the wet paddy field. He has swollen liver. He cannot do even household chore properly. He was forced to sign on the make up statement sheet with the words that Brang Shawng did not say, the accusation of possessing bullets, and KIA enrollment number. He signed it because he was afraid that they would torture him more. Now, he is coughing and suffering from itchy skin. We sent some medicine too but it never reached him. I have spent about Ks. 700,000. I have paid the lawyer Ks. 100,000. I can come to court appointment only once a month. I cannot afford to come every week from Hpunglum Yang IDP camp in Laiza. I save money by doing daily wage odd jobs for the trip to meet him. I also sold a buffalo for the travel expense. The difficulties are insurmountable beyond my expression. I paid Ks.50,000 at the beginning of his imprisonment. After payment, he was not assigned to fetch water anymore. There have been so many court appointments but he have had only six hearings yet.

I felt very lonely when he was arrested. I don’t want to see those faces of Burmese soldiers anymore. I cannot tolerate their actions beating innocent people.

Doi Nan (LL.B)

Name : Doi Nan (LL.B)
Occupation : High Grade Pleader
Address : Myitkyina
Date of Interview : 29 August 2012

Presently, I am handling four Unlawful Act 17(1) cases. My Clients are Lahtaw Yaw Htung, Gawlu Bawk Lum, Chyauchyi Brang Shawng, and Phoe La Pyay. Now, they are being prosecuted with art.202 for failure to give information instead of 17(1). Although the government has declared KIA as illegal party, they are still in sitting talks. None of my clients has been given 17(1) verdict. Most of the accused under detention are civilians who are suffering and there are very few KIA soldiers among them. Sa Ya Hpa does not disturb me very much while I am handling these 17(1) cases. In my opinion, this should not exist in our country now because we are living in unity today.

Ma Hka (LL.B)

Name : U Ma Hka (LL.B)
Age : 29
Occupation : High Grade Pleader
Date of Interview : 16 August 2012

I am handing six 17(1) cases. Five of these cases are the accusation of being KIA soldiers. Another case is related to being a porter carrying things for KIA. All the members of their families are IDPs. They themselves are fathers. Therefore, their families are facing difficulties. They have financial problem, once they come to court. They have to come to court appointments. When a person is arrested he is not provided anything from prison. They have to buy clothes, beds and everything. If they don't but beds they have to sleep on cement floors. When they pay for everything, they are allowed to sleep next to the window with proper ventilation. If they don't pay money, they are forced to do a lot of hard jobs. They are not assigned that much work if they pay. They have a lot of trouble hiring a lawyer. E.g. when a suspect is arrested and taken away no one is allowed to see him. They don't want people see the wounds on the suspect incurred by 17(1) interrogation. When someone from the suspect's family sees him they will tell everyone about it. Before the suspect's family members are allowed to see him, they torture him the most and force him to admit. So far, Sa Ya Hpa has not interfered with my 17(1) case procedures. But sometimes, they come and overhear when we meet with our clients at court. Sometimes, they walk to and from around us. They try to scare the suspects so that they dare not speak to us. The worst part is that they come and listen near us when we meet with the family members of our clients. A person who understands Kachin language would come and listen so that the family members are so terrified to speak. In court, none other than the accused is allowed to enter the room. Usually, there used to be a recording clerk at court. No one is allowed to accompany the defendant and record the hearings in this 17(1) case. Eventually, we found with great difficulty someone to follow up. The judge allowed her to accompany the defendant but writing down the hearings was prohibited. I insisted on writing down the facts saying that there might be omissions and missing points if only one clerk writes down. Then, I was granted. There are so many things we can talk about the court. Sometimes, Sa Ya Hpa people gave me disturbances around me. In fact, there is no 17(1) case in a democracy country. That Act was handed down from the colonial era. What is worse is that the suspects are beaten and tortured by finding faults with no reason. I think they promulgate that policy for Kachin State. It must be the policy to make the IDPs discouraged and make them feel going back to their villages.

Mung Seng Tu (LL.B)

Name : Mung Seng Tu (LL.B)
Occupation : High Grade Pleader
Age : 32
Date of Interview : 22 September 2012

At present, I am handling two cases. Those are the cause of Nra Naw San and Brang Seng. The problem is that I don't receive the lawyer fee. Mostly, I do it free of charge. But I told then to pay me at least Ks. 100,000 so that it looks nice on the government's perspective. That is only enough for documents in the court. That way how I deal with them in front of others. If I don't charge them, my service will be undervalued. The suspects may be released because their cases are policy issues. Since I have worked in court for 12 years now, I understand about it quite well. The problem is that Sa Ya Hpa did not come to court appointments. But SB witnesses did come. They gave statements well too. They are prosecuted using the interrogation statements only. Therefore, it is good that Sa Ya Hpa did not come. But the cases are different from one another. The prosecution based on the interrogation and the eyewitness from the public was necessary. The statement from fire brigade did it very good. It has positive outcome because they came. They testified that Brang Seng was innocent and that there was no evidence. SB came but they did not interfere with us. Naw San is prosecuted with Unlawful Associations Act art. 17(1), and 19 (Sa) and explosive substances. The 17(1) case has been heard at Township Court and the other cases have hearings at District Court. Only Ks. 100,000 is charged for 17(1). The other cases have to do with the lawyer's skills and know-how. 17(1) has been since the British Colonial time and it should not be practiced anymore. Freedom of speech does not require 17(1).

A Brief Account of Detention

Yaw Zung, Yaw Sau, Lamai Awng Mai, Yaw Ting, Yaw Htung, Nhkum La Mai, Kum Hpang, Lamawng Dut, Saya Maung Tang were arrested and interrogated. At present, Yaw Zung, Yaw Sau and Lamai Awng Mai are in prison. They lived in the same compound when they were arrested in Nawng Jan Kone, in Namkham (Northern Shan State) at 1:00 am on 17 November 2011. The authorities heard that there were 17 KIA soldiers in Nawng Jan Kone and came to arrest these men. Therefore, people living in Nawng Jan Kone fled to hiding places. Yaw Zung, Yaw Sau and Lamai Awng Mai are suffering from serious torture by the Burmese Army.

Statement of Ji Grawng

Yaw Zung, Yaw Sau, Lamai Awng Mai, Yaw Ting, Yaw Htung and Lamawng Dut are brother-in-law. They live in the same compound. On the day of incident, all of them brothers and sisters were living in Nawng Jan Kone. They were arrested being suspected as KIA soldiers. Everyone in the house including parents-in-law were taken away. Yaw Sau’s wife Nang Kai was later left in my house to look after many children of them. Over ten people, men and women, were arrested. Men were arrested at night and women were taken away the next morning. My mother-in-law was one among them. They were arrested as KIA soldiers. But they were not KIA soldiers at all. They were not tortured when they were arrested at their homes. But they were said to have been electrocuted at Pang Se militia camp (Nawarat outpost). They said that their whole bodies were electric-shocked. Yaw Ting was released later. He was beaten to near-death. When he could no longer bear the suffering, he confessed that he was KIA soldier and promised the interrogators to show where he had hidden the weapons. He came out to the highway with soldiers and escaped. By that time everyone in Nawng Jan Kone had already fled to hiding.
Saya U Maung Thant who was evangelizing Palaung tribe in Nawng Jang village was also arrested. He is 72 year old and he was not beaten. But he was said to have been detained in a bathroom for a night. On 18 November 2011. La Nu, Kum Hpang, his father-in-law, Yaw Htung and Yaw Zung’s son were released. While we were drinking green tea after breakfast, my mother-in-law was summoned to sign the bill so that her children would be released. Pan Se militia were the ones who took him away. My mother-in-law Dashi Roi Ji was detained for 4-5 days.

The community leader met me and said, “I don’t know what to say. The police asked me to summon your people but later the Pan Se militia came and took them away”. My mother in law was to have molested on her breast and hit with the butt of gun accusing her of concealing weapons. Therefore, her teeth were still loose by the time of her release. She was said to have been unconscious for quite a long time after being struck on her head.

Lamawng Dut died on the same day because of extreme torture. The soldier left his body in Namkham hospital. There was slash on his throat. The army said that he had committed suicide. At 5:00 pm the same day, the body was collected and buried at Ban Lung Village. Mean while, Yaw Zung, Yaw Sau and Lamai Awng Mai are still under detention. They were not soldiers at all.

That night they were tied with ropes but U Lazing escaped. Since that time Ma Gam was tortured as being their leader. The troop unit which arrested them was Kha La Ya (342) Infantry from Namtu. Ma Gam was unfairly tortured for possessing the gun.

The oral statement of U Ma Gam’s mother

Ma Gam was arrested when he was led away by an elder U Lazing escaped that night. There and then, my son became the culprit. When they arrived at prison, he was entitled KIA sergeant. My husband has had good friendship with the Burma army troops. One day which I can’t remember exactly (21 July 2012), six-soldiers came and asked me if U La Ja was at home I did not know the reason why they asked and I simply answered “Yes”. The soldiers invited my husband to drink green tea downstairs. My husband in turn invited them to come upstairs, but they insisted on his coming downstairs. My husband brought green tea cattle and came down. At that time, I was in the kitchen. A soldier came in and took away the rope fastened to the basket. I asked him if he would use it to tie the pig. He said it would also be necessary to do so. They grabbed my husband on both sides while I was fetching water at the well and told me not to worry because he would be released soon after their officer had interrogated him. So they took him away. While they were searching in the house, they discovered an old wireless talking machine. My husband could not afford to buy new batteries and he kept it there. Actually, my husband wasn’t an informer for KIA. They did not torture him in our house. The same evening I bought bread with Ks. 1,500 to him. I didn’t know where they kept him. I haven’t seen him since he was arrested. Now, I learned that he was in Namtu. He was arrested by Man Tong Troop (130). Five soldiers who came and arrested him had guns. I didn’t know the names of those soldiers well. But my husband must have known them. We have only 1 acre of paddy field. The oldest child of our three children has dropped out of school. Only the two younger ones are at school. It has been nearly one month since my husband was detained. We are not in normal condition since he is not at home.

First, I thought they came to take the wireless talking machine (walkie-talkie) to use in the mass gathering of the villagers. So I brought it to them. I told them that I was YaYa Kha (village council member) and to check my name in the list if they did not believe me. And, actually I did not want to side with any party. I also told them that I had sore throat. They took me always and beat me along the way until my muscles cramped. They pointed at me with a knife and aimed with gun to my forehead very hard. They squeezed my finger between the bullets.

Along the way they tortured me on and off. I told them that I knew nothing but they continued to beat me repeatedly. They hit me with the gun. Major Thet Htwe himself came and arrested me. Every time he stumbled on his way to searching house to house he beat us again and again saying that he got hurt because of coming to find us. Each of the ten soldiers had a gun. In fact, they did not come to arrest me but to arrest someone else downstairs of my house. I was released upon the village elders’ request because of my mother’s death. They warned me not to say anything when they would arrest me on the way. They found Zau Hpang on the road and slapped him on the cheek. They also asked him who else in the village had wireless talking machine. He replied none. Then they took out a bullet and said he would be shot dead by that bullet next time there were fighting in this village.

Interview with Lawyer

Pawlu (L.L.B)

Occupation : High Grade Pleader
Residential address : Lashio, Northern Shan State
Date of interview : 24 October 2012.

I have handled three cases of Unlawful Association Act, art. 17(1). At present, I do not have any other one. This present case is policy-related case and there is little possibility for acquittal. But I will have to work on it according to the law. Usually most cases ended in prison terms. Sa-Ya-Hpa authorities did not disturb me when I was handling that case. However, they inquired me whatever they wanted to know why I met with my clients whenever I met to my clients. At the time of case interrogation I was not disturbed by them. For instance, I would be suspected as if I was paid by KIA to handle the case if I did not charge my clients. Most 17(1) KIA related case ended in imprisonment. So, I cannot do the job by myself alone. Urgent verdict for a suspect to prison sentence has to do with the court, and anyone else. We have appointment at Lashio law court once a week. The witnesses also came to the court appointment every week. If some one there was not listed in the witness list, he or she would be dismissed. If any case had seven witnesses, but when the case had enough evident after testifying five witnesses, the other two would be excluded. So, only three are witnesses would come, and sometimes only two would comes. After their oral statement, in 4 or 5 weeks, the witness part would be enough. Then the suspect (defendant) would testify. After that the case would be nearly finished. It might take longer time depending on the authorities side. Sometimes, we had to wait for some organizations, or waiting for some current situations. Sometime, nine or ten eyewitnesses came. Mostly, people from the army came. They would come unless they were out in the front line battlefields. The police took longer time. The army would not delay. The situation has changed and they would come when summoned. The suspect was arrested by them and they had to be present. That’s why the procedure was fast.
