

The State Law and Order Restoration Council
The Law Protecting the Peaceful and Systematic Transfer of State Responsibility and the Successful Performance of the Functions of the National Convention against Disturbances and Oppositions

(The State Law and Order Restoration Council Law No. 5/96)

7th Waxing Day of Nayon, 1358 M.E.

(7th June, 1996)

The Tatmadaw has protected the interests of the State and the people whenever disturbances which undermine national unity in the State and Sovereignty of the State occur. Likewise from the time it took over the responsibility of the State after making a timely prevention of the dangers which could cause the destruction of the State, the State Law and Order Restoration Council (Tatmadaw) has established stability of the State, community peace and tranquility, prevalence of law and order and national reconsolidation. It has also laid down the foundations with a view to the development of a genuine multiparty democracy system and the peaceful and systematic transfer of the responsibility of the State.

The State Law and Order Restoration Council together with the people is striving its utmost to build a peaceful and modern developed State, after laying down the political objectives, economic objectives and social objectives.

At the same time, in order to draft a firm and enduring Constitution, the State Law and Order Restoration Council formed the National Convention Convening Commission and assigned responsibility to lay down the fundamental principles and the detailed principles to be based upon and is successfully convening the National Convention with an extensive participation of representatives from the entire State.

However, it is found that people who are against the development and progress of the State with reliance on external elements are conducting acts which undermine the stability of the State, community peace and tranquility, prevalence of law and order and national reconsolidation. -

Furthermore, it is also found that disturbance of the functions of the National Convention and acts such as incitement, delivering speeches, making oral and written statements and disseminating in various ways to belittle the National Convention and to make the people misunderstand are being conducted.

Such acts amount to obstruction, disturbance and opposition to the development of a genuine multiparty democracy system and the peaceful and systematic transfer of the responsibility of the State. Consequently as it has become necessary to prevent the obstruction, disturbance and opposition to the peaceful and systematic transfer of responsibility of the State successful performance of the functions of the National Convention, building of a peaceful and modern developed State, the State Law and Order Restoration Council hereby enacts the following Law:-
