Continuation of article on the Myanmar cannon on Calton Hill in Edinburgh which was brought from Danhawady (Rakhine) in 1784. It was built during King Bodawpaya's reign (1782 - 1819). After the Third Anglo-Burmese War, many Burmese cannon and other captured guns were shipped to England as gifts to Queen Victoria and her court and presented by General Prendergast.

Burmese bronze gun from King Thebaw's Palace in Mandalay 1885. The carriage was made in the Royal Arsenal at Woolwich in 1858.