Pyidaungsu Hluttaw discusses messages of president on national education law

Nay Pyi Taw, 22 Jan — The Pyidaungsu Hluttaw discussed the messages of the president on the national education law and six-party talks on Thursday. Secretary of Joint Bill Committee U Saw Hla Tun read out the findings of the committee on the message.

The committee recommended amending the national education law, adding that the contents of the message on the law are comprehensive and contribute to stability and peaceful learning environment and the Ministry of Education should come up with the amendment bill as soon as possible. Then, the secretary read out the response of the speaker of the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw to the president’s message on six-party talks.

The response to the message urges the president to hold the first found of six-party talks in order to develop the framework and future tasks of the talks as soon as possible. Afterwards, the Pyidaungsu Hluttaw session discussed the bill amending the law on salaries and emoluments of Hluttaw representatives sent back with remarks by the president and approved the bill as recommended by the joint bill committee.

Later, a member of the committee read out the bill for holding a national referendum for amending the 2008 state constitution and invited representatives to take part in the discussion at next sessions.

--MNA

Source: The Global New Light of Myanmar, 2015-01-23