

THE REQUISITIONING (EMERGENCY PROVISIONS)
(AMENDMENT) ACT, 1947.

[BURMA ACT No. LV OF 1947.]

[31st July 1947.]

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. It shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the thirty-first day of July, 1947.

2. For sub-section (2) of section 2 of the Requisitioning (Emergency Provisions) Act, 1947, hereinafter referred to as the said Act, the following sub-section shall be substituted :—

“(2) Where the Governor has requisitioned any land, premises, water-supply system or thing under sub-section (1), the Governor may use such land, premises, water-supply system or thing in such manner as he may consider necessary or expedient, but shall have no power to dispose of any such land, premises, water-supply system or thing.”

3. After section 4 of the said Act, the following section shall be inserted as section 4A thereof :—

“4A. The Governor may, by order, direct that any power which is conferred upon him by section 2, section 3 and section 4 shall, subject to such conditions as may be specified therein, be exercised by such officer or authority as he may specify.”

4. For sub-section (1) of section 6 of the said Act, the following sub-section shall be substituted :—

“(1) Where any property or thing is requisitioned, or is deemed to have been requisitioned, under the provisions of this Act, the owner of such property or thing shall be paid such compensation for any loss he may have sustained as a result of such requisitioning as may be fixed in accordance with the provisions of this section.”
