

THE ARMS (TEMPORARY AMENDMENT) ACT, 1947.

[BURMA ACT NO. LXIV OF 1947.]

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

1. (1) This Act shall come into force on such date as the Governor may, by notification, specify and different dates may be prescribed for different parts of Burma.

(2) It shall remain in force until such date as the Governor may, by notification, direct that it shall no longer be in force.

2. So long as this Act remains in force, section 19 of the Arms Act shall have effect as if the following proviso had been added to the said section, namely :—

“ Provided that where any person commits an offence falling within clause (e) or clause (f), he shall be punished with death or transportation for life, if the arm, ammunition or military store found in the possession of such person is a machine-gun, bren-gun, tommy-gun, sten-gun or rifle or American carbine, or ammunition for any of the said guns, or a hand-grenade, or any other arms of the description which the Governor may, by notification, declare in this behalf. ”
