EMERGENCY N.D.F. MEETING

The presidium of the National Democratic Front (NDF), the united front of Burma's ethnic organizations, held a two-day emergency meeting in Karenni State from 24-25 April 1996. This was the first meeting of the NDF since the fall of Manerplaw in January 1995. The meeting was attended by representatives from: the Arakan Liberation Party (ALP), the Chin National Front (CNF), the Karen National Union (KNU), the Karenni National Progressive Party (KNPP), the Pa-O People's Liberation Organization (PPLO), the Palaung State Liberation Front (PSLF), and the Wa National Organization (WNO). All the NDF leaders agreed that it was essential for member organizations to hold firm to the basic principles of equality, self-determination, and federalism. The NDF reaffirmed its determination to oppose military dictatorships and to work with Burmese democratic forces led by Daw Aung San Suu Kyi. The Front also agreed to the tripartite dialogue to resolve Burma's problems as proposed by the United Nations General Assembly. Lieut-Gen Tamalabaw (KNU) assumed the Presidency. Gen Aung Than Lay (KNPP), Col Hkun Okker (PPLO) and Salai Myo Aye (CNF) were appointed to executive positions. The NDF also resolved to convene the Fourth Congress of the NDF and a National Democracy Seminar to further consolidate the political position of Burma's ethnic peoples.

CEASEFIRE GROUPS MEET

Senior representatives from several cease fire groups met on 1 Feb.96 in the Loi Kha area of Hsipaw in northern Shan State to discuss a common strategy to resist increasing pressure from the State Law and Order Restoration Council (SLORC) to lay down their arms. Participants included the Palaung State Liberation Organization led by Ai Mung, the United Wa State Party from Pang Sang, the Kokang group led by Peng Kya Shin, the Kachin Defence Army led by Mathu Naw, the Shan State Army led by Sao Sai Nong, Sao Kai Fah, and Sao Pang Fah, the Shan National Army led by Karn Yord and Sai Yi and the Shan United Revolutionary Army led by Sao Yod Serk. A delegation from the KNPP also attended the meeting.

GENEVA CONDEMNS SLORC

The United Nations Human Rights Commission meeting in Geneva, Switzerland, for the 6th consecutive year adopted a consensus resolution condemning the State Law and Order Restoration Council's (SLORC) continued human rights violations in Burma including forced labour and abuse of women.

THINGYAN CELEBRATION BLOCKED

On 16 Apr, SLORC prevented the National League for Democracy (NLD) from celebrating the Burmese New Year (Thingyan). The plan called for participants to walk from Daw Aung San Suu Kyi's house to a place by the lakeshore to perform a fish releasing ceremony to gain merit for the New Year. On 15 April, SLORC informed the NLD that they would not be permitted to do so. The NLD then decided to continue with the portion of the ceremony (paying respect to elders) that could be carried out indoors at Daw Aung San Suu Kyi's residence. But SLORC barricaded the road in front of her house and stopped people from entering. Daw Aung San Suu Kyi believes that SLORC did so because it was afraid that public support for her might become too obvious [A960503].

GANDHI AWARD TO DAW SUU

The 1996 Indira Gandhi Golden Award for International Understanding was given Daw Aung San Suu Kyi on 6 May by the Asiatic Society of Calcutta [FTUBWB960502].

MA THIDA WINS P.E.N. AWARD

The 1996 PEN/Barbara Goldsmith Award was given to Ma Thida by the PEN American Center at its 1996 PEN Literary Gala on 25 April at the New York State Theater at Lincoln Center. Ma Thida is a qualified physician, founder of a clinic for women and a prolific writer of fiction, most of which is banned in Burma. She served as a campaign assistant to Daw Aung San Suu Kyi during the 1990 elections. She was arrested and sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment for "endangering public peace, having contact with illegal organizations, and distributing unlawful literature". She is being held in solitary confinement in Insein Jail [PEN960423].

Karen State:

KARENS HOLD MORE TALKS

On 28 April, a six-member delegation led by Karen National Union (KNU) Joint General-Secretary Mahn Sha Lar Phan left for Moulmein for the third round of talks with SLORC. The KNU wants a comprehensive peace agreement with the Rangoon military government, including political concessions. But to date, SLORC has refused to discuss any political issues [IA960429].

EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT

Glenys Kinnock, Labour Member of the European Parliament from South Wales East and member of the Group of the Party of European Socialists, organized a Burma briefing at the European Parliament in Strasbourg in April. NGOs from Canada, Belgium, France, Germany and the Netherlands, and the NCGUB Netherlands participated.

NETWORK OF POLITICAL LEADERS

The International Network of Political Leaders Promoting Democracy in Burma was launched in Geneva in April. The chairman of the network is former Norwegian Foreign Minister Kjell Magne Bondevik, who presented a five-point plan to promote the democratization process in Burma by:
1. Increasing coordination between countries and institutions in relation to Burma.
2. Persuading Japan and ASEAN to promote the democratization process in Burma.
3. Increasing political and financial support of the Burmese democratic movement.
4. Increasing awareness and knowledge of Burma for international decision-makers.
5. Maintaining international pressure on SLORC to democratize Burma.

Leading politicians from Asia, Europe and the USA are members of the Network. Contact: PD Burma Secretariat, Sporveisgt 2, 0354 Oslo, Norway. Tel: 47 2256-4830, Fax: 2260-6399, Email: pdburma@telepost.no

Delegates included Prime Minister Dr Sein Win, Col Khun Okker, representative of the National Council of the Union of Burma and the National Democratic Front, Dr. Zahleithang, NCGUB Social Welfare Minister and elected Chin representative, Saw Nadah Mya, KNU representative, and Dr. Thaung Htun, head of the Burma-UN Affairs Office in New York. The mission was supported by various NGOs and Burmese from Canada, France, Germany and Switzerland.

Shan State:

SURA TROOPS AMBUSH SLORC

On 23 March, a SLORC patrol was ambushed by Shan United Revolutionary Army troops. SURA headed by Sao Yod Serk is a break-away faction of the Merng Tai Army which refused to surrender to SLORC after Khun Sa made his deal with Rangoon. The SLORC patrol was led by Capt Myo Min Oo of No.5 Company from the 346th Light Infantry Regiment stationed at Wan Long village in Mong Kung. One lieutenant, one 2nd lieutenant, one sergeant and three privates were killed. Many were wounded [SHAN9604].

CHINESE GET IDENTITY CARDS

After Khun Sa's deal with Rangoon, SLORC officials in Ho Mong, Mai Soong, Mong Hsat, Kengtung and Tachilek have been issuing temporary identity cards to Mong Tai Army members who surrender. But in places like Piang Long, Mai Soong and Tachilek, Chinese traders and muleteers who had never belonged to the MTA are bribing SLORC officials for identity cards. In Tachilek, Chinese who live in Hin Taek, Mae Chan, Huey Khrai, Huey Nam Khun, Ban Tham, Nam Cham and Mae Sai, are getting ID cards immediately. However, bone fide Shan soldiers and officials of the MTA from the former strongholds of Par Ko, Loi Lam, Par Zang and Phak Tu Mong, usually have to wait 5-6 days [SHAN9604].

1,000 VEHICLES SEIZED

Between late March and early April, SLORC commandeered about 1,000 vehicles in the Shan State to facilitate transport requirements for tactical operations in the Kun Hing, Mong Nai, Nam Sarng, Loilem, Mong Kung, Laikha and Kese areas [SHAN9604].

FORCED RICE PRODUCTION

On 7 March, SLORC 99th Infantry Battalion in Langkho ordered the people of Pang Thun village to grow rice for them. When the Pang Thun villagers refused to comply, villagers from three other wards, 12 miles to the north of Langkho were forced to come and work in the fields. Ten villagers from each village took turns to work the fields until the rice was harvested and taken to the military camp at Pang Keng [SHAN9604].

Chin State:

U.N.D.P. STAFF MURDERED

Ming Hnin, a United Nations Development Programme representative in Chin State, was found shot on the road between Haka and Thlantlang in early May. A Chin graduate of the University of Rangoon, Ming Hnin held a Master's degree and was supervising UNDP projects in the area - water supply, bridge and road building, and distributing pencils and exercise books to school children. A local police investigation said that Ming Hnin had been shot by an M16 rifle and they also found footprints at the crime scene consistent with marks made by Burma Army boots. The report was, however, never, published. In the meanwhile, the Burma Army claimed that Ming Hnin had been mistaken for their Military Intelligence Chief in Thlantlang and murdered by the Chin National Front. Both men travelled on motorcycles. The Intelligence officer mistreated the Chin people and was hated by them. Ming Hnin's family refused to sign a document provided by the Burma Army stating that he had been killed by the CNF. On 16 May, the Military Intelligence Chief in Thantlang was killed in retaliation for Ming Hnin's murder [CNF960519].
CURFEW IN CHIN STATE

A curfew was declared by SLORC in the Chin State following the shooting of Burma Army officers. The victims were the Military Intelligence Chief in Tiddim, a major, who was making excessive demands for bribes; the chairman of the Falam Law and Order Restoration Council, also a major; and the tactical commander of the Burma Army unit stationed in Haka, a colonel. The colonel reportedly demanded locals to supply him with young virgins. The assassinations have not been made public by SLORC [CNF960519].

PEPSI BOYCOTT IN BURMA

Students in Mandalay, Moulmein, and other cities launched a boycott campaign in April against Pepsi and other products produced by foreign companies doing business with the country's ruling military junta. "We realize how the Pepsi and other foreign investments are collaborating with the military regime in suppressing our struggle for democracy and human rights," a high school student from Mandalay said. "We are very encouraged by this international campaign for Burma," the student said, "That is why we decided to act locally in Burma." He said the boycott Pepsi campaign would be intensified when Burmese high schools and colleges reopen in May following the summer holidays [UPI/ABSDF960425].

PEPSICO PULLS OUT

On 22 April, officials from the Pepsico International Ltd announced in a press conference, that it is selling its 40% stake in a joint venture in Burma. However, Pepsi is not going to pull out of Burma totally. Pepsi will continue to honour its contract in the 'short-term' to sell syrup concentrate and allow the use of the Pepsi trademark by the Burmese bottler.

BUSINESSMAN SENTENCED

James Leander `Leo' Nichols, 65, a well-known Burmese businessman and close family friend of 1991 Nobel Peace laureate Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, was sentenced to three years imprisonment on 18 May. Nichols was accused of using telephones and fax machines without permission, and was arrested by SLORC on 5 April. Nichols, an Anglo-Burmese, was also the former honorary consul and contact person for Denmark, Finland, Norway, Sweden and Switzerland [N/Reu960519].
CONCERN OVER TOURISM

British tour operators took a unique stand on human rights abuses in Burma by sending letters to SLORC. Symbiosis Expedition Planning, Himalayan Kingdoms, Nomadic Thoughts, and Cycle South East Asia wrote explaining that the extreme nature of the human rights abuses in Burma, which are directly linked to tourism development, have prompted their decision not to operate in Burma. They asserted that they will not be operating tours to Burma until they are confident that SLORC's policy of forcibly relocating people and using forced labour to build the tourism infrastructure has completely stopped. Other agencies who operate in Burma - Imaginative Traveller, Indochina Travel, Bales Tours, Andrew Brock Travel, Explore Worldwide, Exodus, Silk Steps and Association of Independent Tour Operators also sent a joint letter to the Ministry of Hotels and Tourism in Rangoon stating their objections to the human rights abuses associated with tourism. According to Patricia Barnett, Director of Tourism Concern, UK, this is the first time that tour operators have made statements on human rights abuses related to tourism.
