2. In these rules unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context:—

(1) " The Act " means the Rangoon City Civil Court AcU

(2) " Bailiff " means any Bailiff of the Court.

U) " The Code " means so much of the Code of Civil Procedure, together with the Schedules and Appendices thereto, as is not expressly or impliedly excluded by the Act or these or any duly authorized rules.

(4) " Prescribed " means prescribed by these or any duly authorized rules or orders or by the Code.

<sup>1</sup> These rules were made by the High Court in exe-cise of the powers conferred by s. 3212) of U* Rangoon City Civil Court Act; see High Court Notification No. 1 (General), dated the 27th February 1946.

Part II.Recovery of Possession of Immovable Property.*

3. An application under section 17 of the Act shall be in the form of a plaint in which the applicant shall be the plaintiff and the occupant the defendant and the matter shall be treated as a suit. For the purpose of ascertaining the value of the suit the annual rental value of the property in respect of which the claim is made shall be deemed to be the value of such suit and such annual value shall be stated in the application.

4. When an application has been made under section 17 of the Act, the Court shall by summons call upon the defendant to show cause why he should not be ejected from the property and compelled to deliver it up to the plaintiff.

5. The summons shall be served on the defendant in the manner provided by the Code for the service of summons on a defendant,

6. If the defendant does not appear at the time appointed and show cause to the contrary, the plaintiff shall, if the Court is satisfied that he is entitled to apply under section 17 of the Act, be entitled to an order addressed to the Bailiff directing him to eject the defendant and to give possession of the property to the plaintiff on such a day as the Court thinks fit to name in such order.

*7. Any such order shall justify the Bailiff in entering after the hour of eight in the morning and before the hour of six in the afternoon upon the property named therein, with such assistants as he thinks necessary, and giving possession of such property to the Plaintiff, after removing, if necessary, the Defendant and anything found on the property.

8. When the Plaintiff, at the time of applying for any such order as aforesaid, was entitled to the possession of such property, neither he nor any person acting in his behalf shall be deemed, on account of any error, defect or irregularity in the mode of proceeding to obtain possession thereunder, to be a trespasser; but any person aggrieved may institute a suit for the recovery of compensation for any damage which he has sustained by reason of such error, defect or irregularity.

When no such damage is proved, the suit shall be dismissed; and when such damage is proved but the amount of the compensation assessed by the Court does not exceed ten rupees, the Court shall award to the plaintiff no more costs than compensation, unless the Judge who tries the case certifies that in his opinion full costs should be awarded to the plaintiff.

PART III.Distress Warrants.*

9. Every application for a distress warrant under section 22 of the Act shall be accompanied by an affidavit in the prescribed form.

10- The Court may issue a warrant under its seal and returnable within six days, in the prescribed form, addressed to the Bailiff.

The Court may, at its discretion, upon personal examination of the person applying for such warrant, decline to issue the same.

II. Every distress shall be made after sunrise and before sunset, and not<sup>1</sup> at any other time.

12. The Bailiff directed to make the distress may enter any dwelling-house in respect of which the distress is to be effected, and may if necessary, break open any outer or inner door of the property or stable or out-house or any annexe thereof for the purpose of seizing property liable to be seized<sup>1</sup>:

Provided that he shall not enter or break open the door of any room appropriated for the residence of women, which by the usage of the country is considered private.

13. In pursuance of the warrant the Bailiff shall seize the moveable property found in or upon the house or premises mentioned in the warrant and belonging to the person from whom the rent is claimed (hereinafter called the debtor), or such part thereof as may, in the Bailiff's judgment, be sufficient to cover the amount of the said rent, together with the costs of the said distress.

14. The Bailiff may impound or otherwise secure the property so seized in or on the house or premises chargeable with the rent.

15. On seizing any property under Rule 13 the Bailiff shall make an inventory of such property and shall give notice in writing in the prescribed form to the debtor, or to any other person on his behalf in or upon the said house or premises, that such property will be sold pursuant to the provisions of the Act. The date on which the sale will be held shall be stated in the notice and shall be not less than seven days after the date of seizure.

The Bailiff shall, as soon as may be, file in the Court copies of the said inventory and notice.

16. The debtor or any other person alleging himself to be the owner of any property seized, or the duly constituted attorney of such debtor or other person, may apply to the Court to discharge or suspend the warrant, or to release a distrained article, and the Court may discharge or suspend such warrant or release such article accordingly, upon such terms as it thinks just, and may in its discretion give reasonable time to the debtor to pay the rent due from him.

Upon any such application, the costs attending it and attending the issue and execution of the warrant shall be in the discretion of the Court, and shall be paid as the Court directs.

17. If any claim is made to, or in respect of, any property seized under these provisions or in respect of the proceeds or value thereof by any person not being the debtor, the Registrar, upon the application of the Bailiff who seized the property, may issue a summons calling before the Court the claimant and the person who obtained the warrant.

And thereupon any suit which may have been brought in the High Court in respect of such claim shall be stayed and the High Court, on proof of the issue of such summons and of the distrain, may order the plaintiff to pay the costs of all proceedings in such suit after the issue of such summons.

And the Court shall adjudicate upon such claim and make such order between the parties in respect thereof and of the costs of the proceedings as it thinks fit: and such order shall be enforced as if it were an order made in a suit brought in the Court.

The procedure under this rule shall conform, as far as may be, with the procedure in an ordinary suit in the Court.

18. In any case under Rule 16 or 17 the Judge by whom the case is heard may award such compensation by way of damages to the applicant or claimant (as the case may be) as the Judge thinks fit, and may for that purpose make such enquiry as he thinks necessary:

and the order of the Judge awarding or refusing such compensation shall bar any suit for the recovery of compensation for any damage caused by the distress.

19. In default of any order to the contrary made by the Court or by the High Court, the distrained property shall be sold on the day mentioned in the notice prescribed by rule and the Bailiff shall, on realizing the proceeds, pay the amount thereof into judicial deposit; and such amount shall be applied first in payment of the Bailiff's commission and the costs of the said distress and then in satisfaction of the debt; and the surplus, if any, shall be paid to the debtor.

20. No costs of any distress under these provisions shall be taken or demanded except those mentioned in the scale of fees prescribed in Appendix I to these Rules.

The Chief Judge may apply the sum so obtained as costs towards the payment of the contingent charges and Bailiff's remuneration as appears to the said Judge expedient.

21. The Registrar shall keep a book in which all sums received as costs upon distresses made, and all sums paid as remuneration to the Bailiff, and all contingent charges incurred in respect of such distresses, shall be duly entered.

He shall also enter in the said book all sums realized by sale of the property distrained and paid over to landlords under these provisions.

22. No distress shall be levied for arrears of rent except under these provisions.

23. The forms prescribed in Appendix II, with such variation as the circumstances may require, shall be used for the purposes therein mentioned.
