

The First Meeting of the Ministry of Women, Youth and Children's Affairs

18/4/2021

The first meeting of the Ministry of Women, Youth and Children's Affairs under the National Unity Government was held on 18 April 2021.

The meeting discussed the current needs and various issues concerning women, youth and children and decided to endorse policies to proceed enforcing them immediately.

Discussion Summary

- The predicament of women, youth and children of the minorities including the Rohingyas whom the military committed ethnic cleansing missions against,
- The commitment to take action against the military for its human rights violation upon the women, youth and children during the coup resistance and transformation of power,
- The commitment to stop the abovementioned violation of human rights,
- To provide the best possible assistance to women, youth and children affected by the civil war,
- The needs for the youth who are protesting,
- To initiate rehabilitation programs in education, health including mental support for women, youth and children who have suffered from the SAC's brutal actions.

The meeting decided to strategize on the issues and cases that were discussed from one month to six month.

The Ministry of Women, Youth and Children's Affairs will take consideration of the voice of the people and make amendments according to the people's concerns and needs.
