

Republic of the Union of Myanmar
National Unity Government
Weekly News Bulletin

No. 9/2022 <https://www.nugmyanmar.org> 27th June, 2022

NUG welcomes the UK's decision to impose sanctions on companies delivering weapons

(1) The National Unity Government welcomes the United Kingdom's decision to impose sanctions on companies delivering the weapons that allow Myanmar's terrorist military junta to perpetrate its brutal violence. These sanctions target several Russian arms dealers who are selling drones and helicopter parts to the junta as well as Myanmar companies who act as intermediaries between the Russian weapon suppliers and the military. The following Myanmar companies are contained in the sanctions list: Myanmar New Era Trading Company Limited, Sky Aviator Company Limited, and Synpex Shwe Company Limited

<https://bit.ly/3A1ERy8>

NUG announced that it can wage guerrilla warfare and direct confrontations with many PDF battalions

(2) The National Unity Government announced that it is both purchasing and manufacturing armaments so that the combat forces can continue their campaign of guerrilla warfare against the SAC. With the formation of hundreds of battalions and the increased availability of arms, the NUG has also indicated that pro-democracy forces will soon be able to launch direct conventional military operations against the junta's forces. Already the NUG's forces

NUG announces Federal
Democracy Union Declaration

(3) The National Unity Government issued an addendum to the Federal Democracy Charter: "The Federal Democracy Union Declaration". The declaration was first proposed on June 31st, 2021, and approved with some amendments in the first people's congress held 27th – 29th January, 2022.

<https://bit.ly/3yjYEr7>

NUG announced that it can wage guerrilla warfare and direct confrontations with many PDF battalions

(from page 1) have liberated much of Sagaing and northern Magway where approximately 90% of the transport infrastructure and 80% of the villages are under active PDF control.

The NUG stated that it has raised 45 million USD, of which 38 million came from selling bonds, and over 7 million from selling illegal property claimed by the terrorist leader Min Aung Hlaing. All told 95% of the revenue was allocated for defense spending. Dr. Zaw Wai Soe, minister for health and education; Daw Zin Mar Aung, minister for foreign affairs; and U Aung Myo Min, minister for human rights visited the U.S, Czech Republic, Norway, and UK and discussed Myanmar's domestic affair and international relations affairs, human rights violations committed by the terrorist SAC, the provision of humanitarian assistance to the people of Myanmar, and returning the country to peace and democracy.

<https://bit.ly/3OnjXOp>

NUG warn against participation in SAC timber auction

(4) The National Unity Government warned companies and entrepreneurs not to participate in the timber open tender sale organised by the SAC-controlled Myanmar Timber Enterprise, Sagaing (Western) held on June 23. The NUG stated that the timber will instead be used for the reconstruction and restorations activities for the buildings and properties burnt down by the terrorist SAC.

<https://bit.ly/3OBWuZe>

Video evidence showing that the SAC murdered innocent civilians

(5) Radio Free Asia published several photos showing 30 civilians with their hands tied behind their backs being detained in a monastery campus. the photos als show two soldiers looking at the civilians as they are being shot in the head, soldiers torturing civilians with knives. One video clip records soldiers having a conversation about how they decapitated, cut the throats of, and otherwise murdered many civilians. U Aung Myo Min, Union Minister for Human Rights Ministry commented that the pride SAC soldiers feel over the torture and killing underlines the threat the military poses to the whole population.

<https://bit.ly/3NuVvk12>

NUG will ratify conventions and agreements related to human rights

(6) The National Unity Government welcomed the briefing on Myanmar's human rights update made by United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights. The government has pledged to ratify international conventions and agreements related to human rights.

The NUG will accept its obligations under international humanitarian and human rights law; ratify further conventions and agreements including the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (CCPR), and the United Nations Convention against Torture (CAT); accept the jurisdiction and authority of the International Criminal Court and International Court of Justice; and look to the Independent Investigative Mechanism for Myanmar (IIMM) to pave the way for justice and accountability.

<https://bit.ly/3bwEmSg>

Military leaders use sexual violence as a political and military weapon

(7) The National Unity Government stated on the International Day for the Elimination of Sexual Violence in Conflict that the terrorist military leaders use sexual violence as a political and military weapon. SAC troops, whether individually or as part of a systematic collective campaign, regularly commit sexual violence in both prison and public areas. Their victims include children, the elderly, and members of the LGBT community.

<https://bit.ly/3yfmtiX>

MOWYAC to hold exhibition to raise awareness of sexual violence

(8) The Ministry of Women, Youth and Children's Affairs is inviting artists to submit pieces for an upcoming exhibition hosted by the ministry to raise awareness about and for the eradication of sexual violence. Submissions can be sent to the "End Sexual Violence in Conflict" Facebook page:

<https://www.facebook.com/ESVinConflict/>
<https://bit.ly/3OIUowR>

NUG introduces NUG Pay

(9) The Ministry of Planning, Finance and Investment has rolled out the NUG Pay platform which will allow Myanmar people to conduct business independent of SAC controlled financial mechanisms. NUG Pay uses Digital Myanmar Kyats (DMMK), a cryptocurrency based on the blockchain which is pegged at parity with the fiat Myanmar Kyat to control the volatility that has plagued many other cryptocurrencies.

<https://bit.ly/3ylfMwJ>

ILACC continues meetings with MSICC and KSCC

(10) Prime Minister Mahn Win Khaing Than, encouraged the Local Administration Central Committee (ILACC) and Mon State Interim Cooperation Committee (MSICC) to cooperate not only in military measures but also in administrative, security and judiciary activities. He also stated that a federal union will only be established when people from different backgrounds, with diverse ethnicities and beliefs actively take part in the revolution.

The comments came during joint meetings between ILACC and local administrative organs where matters related to backgrounds of MSICC and KSCC, public service delivery, and the provision of humanitarian aid were discussed, and joint actions were decided.

<https://bit.ly/3btZb11>

June ILACC meeting

(11) The Interim Local Administration Central Committee (ILACC) held a meeting to discuss matters related to the arrangements among the state consultative councils for the distribution of administrative aid that will be provided by the international community.

The meeting also covered a military and administrative update in military region No.1, policy reviews, arrangements to meet with MSICC, preparations to be made for an assessment by the Ministry of Humanitarian Affairs and Disaster Management, and the distribution of funds raised by the “Mother Su umbrella” campaign.

<https://bit.ly/3QHH5Zk>

Deputy minister for labour meets with immigrant workers affairs committee of the Republic of Korea

(12) U Kyaw Ni, Deputy Minister for Labor held a meeting with the NUG representative to the Republic of Korea and the Immigrant Workers Affairs Committee of the Republic of Korea. During the meeting, participants discussed matters related to the challenges faced by Myanmar migrant workers, the complaint mechanism for the loss or violation of labour rights, a survey on oversea employment opportunities, the issuing of overseas employment registration cards (OERC), and further collaborative actions.

<https://bit.ly/3QNTsDh>

Ambassador U Kyaw Moe Tun calls on the international communities to strengthen engagement and cooperation with CRPH and NUG for prevailing democracy and justice

(13) Kyaw Moe Tun, Permanent Representative of Myanmar to the UN repeated his strong belief that justice and democracy will prevail in Myanmar if the UN, the Inter-Parliamentary Union, and national parliaments strengthen their engagement and cooperation with CRPH and the NUG and continue their support for our fight for democracy. His remarks came during the debate on “Interaction between the United Nations, National Parliaments and the Inter-Parliamentary Union” at the UN General Assembly.

<https://bit.ly/3nfLmpp>

NUG secures commitment from foreign states to support health and education

(14) Minister for health and education, Prof. Zaw Wai Soe stated in an interview with RFA that the NUG has secured commitments from foreign states to provide support to the Myanmar education and health sectors as the result of the minister's recent visit to those countries. The minister visited the UK, EU, and Norway from May 12th to June 10th and discussed Myanmar's international relations, the human rights violations of the terrorist SAC, updates on the revolution, the delivery of humanitarian assistance to the Myanmar people, and the restoration of peace and democracy in Myanmar.

<https://bit.ly/3A3Ecfs>