National Unity Government Cabinet News

1. NUG strives to establish alliance with all EROs by all means

Acting President Duwa Lashi La affirmed in an interview with RFA News that "cooperation between the National Unity Government, indigenous armed group, political parties, and civil society organizations is critically important as they are backbone of our government and we have been based our charter on this in order to accelerate the revolution. The vast majority of these groups have been working for the success of the revolution alongside the National Unity Government".

The president added that integration and involvement of every individual is the core of the National Unity Government, therefore, the government has worked to establish cooperative arrangements among diverse stakeholder groups. Since the government does not have the weapons, rations, and medical supplies it needs, the president urged people and the international community to ramp up support to the government. Moreover, based on the experience and information learned in the last year of war, better approaches have been planned to ensure strategic . https://bit.ly/3Bu4sQn

2. NUG says SAC's atrocities can be ended if US and EU support Myanmar as they do Ukraine

Responding to Poppy McPherson during a Reuters interview Acting President of the National Unity Government, Duwa Lashi La stated "I have claimed that if America and the European Union support us just as they have Ukraine, we could end the daily massacres of civilians by the SAC. Our objective is to end these air raids and shelling attacks as soon as possible. Therefore, we would be grateful to see the earnest participation of the international community in our endeavor to rebuild our country as a whole." https://bit.ly/3XQwHCa

3. Defence Ministry cautions over chemical weapons
(30/11/2022)

The Ministry of Defence issued a warning to all democratic forces regarding chemical weapons. The use of chemical weapons, the ministry notes, is harmful to the civilian population, causing injury and death indiscriminately. Accordingly, the ministry condemns their use and production. In discussing the dangers of such weapons, the ministry explains that chemical weapons can take solid, liquid, or gaseous form and enter the body through inhalation, ingestion, or even just through physical contact. Those approaching the areas of chemical strikes, even well after the attack, risk serious injury or even death from lingering chemical agents without sufficient protective equipment. https://bit.ly/3XVKTts
