

Statement on the death sentence of seven Dagon University students by the Myanmar Military Council

Date: 1st December, 2022

On November 30, seven students from Dagon University were sentenced to death by Myanmar Military Council. The military group's imposition of the death sentence is just trying to kill innocent people using crumbling courts and laws. We, the Students Unions, do not accept the ruling by the courts, which are the pillars of the terrorist military group, and strongly oppose such injustice sentences imposed on innocent university students.

We, the Student Unions, stand together with the students who have been unjustly sentenced, Ko Khant Zin Win, Ko Thura Maung Maung, Ko Zaw Lin Naing, Ko Thiha Htet Zaw, Ko Hein Htet, Ko Thet Paing Oo, Ko Khant Lynn Maung Maung, monitoring all the situations closely.

The regime continues to torture and kill innocent students brutally. Also, in July 2022, four pro-democracy activists were hanged by the terrorist military group, and so far, more than 13,000 people have been unjustly arrested, and 2,500 have been imprisoned across the country.

We strongly urge the international community, including governments and organizations, to take more focused actions to prevent the killing mechanisms of the military group from continuing to operate.

As a whole population, we appeal to overcome fear and participate in the revolution for our student comrades and the unjustly oppressed people.
