The National Unity Government Cabinet News

1. NUG and NUCC jointly acknowledge political parties boycotting the SAC's sham election

The National Unity Consultative Council and the National Unity Government issued a joint announcement on March 30th acknowledging the political parties that will be boycotting the State Administration Council (SAC)'s sham election by not registering with the Union Election Commission backed by the SAC amidst the many hardships and pressures posed by the SAC.

These bodies went on to say that abolishing political parties that are not registered under the UEC reflects the society the SAC is trying to create where they instigate fear among the civilians in order to perpetuate the military regime. <http://bit.ly/3ZOcLzv>

2. Older persons suffering heavily from military atrocities

Speaking at the General Discussion of the Thirteenth Session of the Open-ended Working Group on Aging held on April 3rd Ambassador Kyaw Moe Tun, Permanent Representative of Myanmar to the United Nations, stated that since older persons are among the people suffering heavily from the military's atrocities against innocent civilians which includes indiscriminate aerial bombings and whole-sale burning of residential homes, the serious attention of the international community to the crisis in Myanmar and especially the challenges faced by older persons is immediately needed in conjunction with concrete action and help. <http://bit.ly/3GtZJ3u>

3. UN ambassador Kyaw Moe Tun urges international community to remain vigilant on military's attempt to establish a small-scale nuclear reactor.

Speaking at the General Debate of the 2023 Substantive Session of the United Nations Disarmament Commission held on April 4th, Ambassador Kyaw Moe Tun, Permanent Representative of Myanmar to the United Nations, stated that given the military's consistent disregard for the rule of law in general and non-compliance with international law, including international humanitarian law, the NUG urges the international community to remain vigilant about the military's recent attempt to build a small-scale nuclear reactor.

The ambassador also added that continuing arms flow to the military junta is bringing a severe toll to the people of Myanmar. Since the coup, more than 3,200 civilians including women and children have been brutally killed by the military and over 62,000 residential homes have been destroyed subject to whole-sale burning and aerial bombings by the military. <http://bit.ly/3Gujhox>
