

Clerical weaknesses contribute to region/state staff mismanagement

NAY PYI TAW, 22 Oct—Weaknesses in office procedures caused mismanagement of staff at region or state civil service organizations, said Union Minister at the President Office U Soe Maung while discussing a proposal at the Pyithu Hluttaw session today.

U Soe Yal of Dimawhso Constituency urged the Union government to allow region or state government to manage the civil servants at lower level in accord with the constitution in his proposal.

The union minister said the region and state governments are entitled, in accord with Section 257 of the constitution, to form region or state civil service organizations as necessary in accord with Union Civil Servant Law or the constitution.

The proposal was put on record by the parliament as proposed by the union minister.

The Bill Committee submitted its report on Contempt of Court Bill at today's session as well.

Today's Pyithu Hluttaw session was attended by 387 MPs plus 65 youth observers from Kokang Self-Administered Zone. NLM
