CommuniCast Myanmar 2015

The annual CommuniCast Myanmar event, which took place on 17-18 November 2015, brought together industry professionals, policymakers, and technology enthusiasts for a comprehensive exchange of ideas and innovations. The event was organized by the Myanmar ICT Association (MICTA) and supported by the Myanmar Telecommunication Authority (MTA) and the Myanmar Broadcasting Corporation (MBC).

The keynote address was delivered by Mr. Shanghua Lu, the CEO of the China Mobile International Ltd., who shared insights on the latest trends in the global telecommunications industry. Other highlights of the event included panel discussions on topics such as cloud computing, cybersecurity, and digital transformation.

The event also featured a exhibition floor where companies showcased their latest products and solutions. Attendees had the opportunity to network with peers and explore potential business opportunities.

Cloud Storage

A panel discussion on Cloud Storage was led by Mr. Lu, who emphasized the importance of cloud storage in today’s digital age. He highlighted how cloud storage solutions provide businesses with flexibility, scalability, and cost-effectiveness.

Data Center

Another important session was dedicated to Data Centers. Experts discussed the role of Data Centers in supporting cloud computing services and how they are driving innovation in the telecommunications sector.

In conclusion, CommuniCast Myanmar 2015 was a successful event that provided a platform for professionals to exchange knowledge and ideas, fostering growth and development in the ICT sector in Myanmar.
