

THE PRESENT WAR TERMINATION
(DEFINITION) ACT, 1946.

[BURMA ACT NO. XII OF 1946.]

WHEREAS by Proclamation, dated the tenth day of December, 1942, the Governor of Burma has assumed to himself all powers vested by or under the Government of Burma Act, 1935, in the Legislature or in either Chamber thereof :

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the said powers it is hereby enacted by the Governor of Burma as follows :—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Present War Termination (Definition) Act, 1946.

(2) It shall extend to the whole of British Burma.

(3) It shall come into force at once.

2. The Governor may declare what day is to be treated as the date of the termination of the present war, and the present war shall be treated as being terminated on the date so declared for the purposes of any provision in any Act, Proclamation, or Regulation for the time being in force in Burma, and, except, where the context otherwise requires, of any provision in any contract or instrument referring, expressly or impliedly, to the present war.
