alliances formed by the British Government with foreign powers, the preservation of tranquillity in the territories of Native Princes entitled to its protection and the security of the British dominions from foreign hostility and from internal commotion, occasionally render it necessary to place under personal restraint individuals against whom there may not be sufficient ground to institute any judicial proceeding or when such proceeding may not be adapted to the nature of the case, or may for other reasons be unadvisable or improper;

and whereas it is fit that, in every case of the nature herein referred

This Regulation has been declared to extend to the Hill District of Arakan, see the Arakan Hill District Laws Regulation, 1874 (9 of 1874), Sch. II, infra, p. 196; and the unrepealed parts of it have been declared to extend mutatis mutandis, and from the 16th September, 1875, to have extended to Lower Burma, see s. 8 of the Burma Laws Act, 1898 (13 of 1898), post; they have also been declared in force in Upper Burma (except the Shan States), see ibid, s. 4 (1) and the First Schedule.

So much of the Regulation, as is in force in any part of Upper Burma, has been extended to the Shan States generally, see Notification No. 11, dated 11th July, 1895, post, Pt. V.

to, the determination to be taken should proceed immediately from the authority of the Governor General in Council;

and whereas the ends of justice require that, when it may be determined that any person shall be placed under personal restraint, otherwise than in pursuance of some judicial proceeding, the grounds of such determination should from time to time come under revision, and the person affected thereby should at all times be allowed freely to bring to the notice of the Governor General in Council all circumstances relating either to the supposed grounds of such determination, or to the manner in which it may be executed;

and whereas the ends of justice also require that due attention be paid to the health of every State prisoner confined under this Regulation, and that suitable provision be made for his support according to his rank in life, and to his own wants and those of his family;

and whereas the reasons above declared sometimes render it necessary that the estates and lands of zamindárs, taluqdárs and others situated within the territories dependent on the Presidency of Fort William, should be attached and placed under the temporary management of the Revenue-authorities, without having recourse to any judicial proceeding;

and whereas it is desirable to make such legal provisions as may secure from injury the just rights and interests of individuals whose estates may be so attached under the direct authority of Government; to make, either to reject such application or to put the applicant in possession of the land comprised in his application.

Any applicant whose application is rejected under this section may, within two months from the date of such rejection, institute a suit in the Civil Court to recover possession of the land comprised in his application.

Any such applicant who neglects to institute such a suit within the said period of two months shall forfeit his status of landholder in respect of such land.

11. Any landholder who, except as provided in section 12, voluntarily relinquishes the possession of any land after the expiry of three years from the date on which this Act comes into force, shall at once forfeit his status of a landholder in respect of such land.

12. Whenever any person in possession of land, and claiming the status of a landholder in respect thereof, desires temporarily to relinquish the possession of the same, he may present a petition to the revenue-officer, requesting him to take over such land.

The revenue-officer on receipt of such petition, if it appears to him on such enquiry as he thinks fit to make that the petitioner is entitled to such status, shall cause a notice to be published in such manner as the ¹[Local Government] may by rule prescribe, declaring that he has taken over the land; and the land shall thereupon be at his disposal to be let on lease or otherwise dealt with, subject to the rights of any third parties over the land and to the right of the petitioner next hereinafter reserved.

13. The petitioner may, at any time within twelve years from the date on which the land has been taken over by the revenue-officer, apply to the revenue-officer to reinstate him in possession of the same.

Provided that no person shall be ejected under this section from any land which, before receiving notice from the revenue-officer of the said application such person or his predecessor in interest has in any way prepared for cultivation, until the person sought to be ejected has gathered in his crop:

Applications to recover possession by persons claiming as succeeding to the rights of the petitioner.

14. If any person applies for possession of land under section 13, alleging that he is the successor in interest of the petitioner from whom such land was taken over by the revenue-officer, the revenue-officer may, in his discretion, reject such application, or proceed thereon under section 13 as if it were an application by the said petitioner, and the person from whom such land has been taken, or any other person, may sue to establish his title to such land.

Declaration and record of original acquisition of landholder's status.

15. Any person being in possession of any land and asserting that he himself, or any other person through whom he claims, acquired the status of a landholder in respect of such land in the manner provided by section 7, may apply to the revenue-officer to record, in a register to be provided for this purpose, a declaration of such status having been so acquired. And the revenue-officer, if it appears to him after a notice of such application has been published for such period and in such manner as the ¹ [Local Government] may by rule prescribe, and after such enquiry as the revenue-officer may think fit to make, that such status was so acquired, shall record a declaration to that effect, and furnish the applicant with a certificate of the same having been recorded.

Cancellation of such declarations and records.

16. If, within five years from the date on which a declaration has been record under section 15, the revenue-officer is satisfied that it is erroneous, he may cancel it:

Provided that no such declaration shall be so cancelled until a notice of the intention to cancel it has been published for such period and in such manner as the ¹ [Local Government] may from time to time by rule direct.

Fresh declarations.

While any such declaration remains on the register uncanceled, no fresh declaration inconsistent therewith shall be recorded in such register.

Questions as to original acquisition or as to the loss of landholder's status how to be dealt with by Civil Courts.

17. It is hereby enacted as follows:—

CHAPTER I.

PRELIMINARY.

Power to appoint Demarcation and Boundary-
officers;
functions of such officers.

2. The Local Government may from time to time appoint persons, by name or by virtue of their office, to be Demarcation-officers and

⁶ Boundary-officers and may suspend or remove any person so appointed.

The Act was declared in force in Upper Burma by the Burma Laws Act, 1898 (13 of 1898), see the First Schedule, post.

² Read now "Lower Burma," see the Burma Laws Act, 1898 (13 of 1898), s. 7, post.

³ This Preamble was substituted for the original, by the Burma Boundaries Act Amendment Act, 1895 (2 of 1895), s. 2, post, Act 2 of 1895 extends to the whole of Burma (inclusive of Upper Burma), except the Shan States, see Act 2 of 1895, s. 1 (2). In the original Preamble there was no reference to survey-marks, and the reference was to "British Burma."

⁴ The officer designated Chief Commissioner in this Act, is now the Lieutenant-Governor of Burma, see Proclamation, dated 9th April, 1897, Gazette of India, 1897, Pt. I, p. 261.

If on the report of the Demarcation Officer or in the course of an enquiry made by himself, the Boundary Officer is unable to satisfy himself as to which party is in possession, or if it is shown that possession has been obtained by wrongful dispossession of the lawful occupants of the land within a period of three months previous to the commencement of the enquiry, the Boundary Officer—

Sixth.—The Collector may, on the application of the person entitled to receive such rent or compensation, determine the amount of rent due or assess the amount of such compensation; and, if any such rent or compensation be not paid by the applicant or his representative in interest, the amount, with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the date on which it became due, may be recovered as if it were an arrear of land-revenue, and the same, when recovered, shall be paid to the person to whom it is due.

the Divisional Canal-officer, if applied to for that purpose or on his own motion, may, with the sanction of the Superintending Canal-officer, after such notice as the Local Government may by rule made in accordance with section 79, direct, shut off the supplies of any or all such water-courses until the owners have made arrangements to his satisfaction to unite the water-courses or to substitute for them such system as may have been approved by the Superintending Canal-officer:
